Dear Sir

Many thanks for your letter of congratulation on my return - I assure you I am well pleased to be again at my own home which I prefer as a place of residence to all the splendours & allments that embellish a London life.

My colleague & I had a laborious & anxious duty & I hope the Country will be satisfied that it was discharged with fidelity at least & diligence.

From the Secy & Bishops several times at Lloyd in the case of the people. So great is the indifference of the Underwriters when losses have been paid & are looked upon as settled that they would hardly attend to this matter would become liable for an expense. I prepared a power of atty to you which you will find duly executed along with the accompanying papers. But $9-12/ has been paid by Mr. Tremain into the Treasury and you have no legal authority I advise you forward a Memorial to the Gov. if this be ineffectual a petition to the House. The money once paid in, we will endeavor to get a share of it under the two policies of power. George will attend to it when necessary. My best regards to Mrs. Dawson believe me Very Truly Yours

W. Young
