

Inventory of articles in possession of Rodrick Johnston at Clinch John which belonged to William Taylor. taken 28th May 1835

Suit of Valises on top Contains -

1 Clock, 1 Tea tray, 1 Small Picture, 3 Chains, 2 pots, 1 Bake Kettle, 3 Spoons  $\frac{1}{2}$  doz knives 2 forks, 1 Potatoe Powder, 1
Set. 4. Candle moulds, 1 Bench Toble, 1 Wash Basin & Spoon
8 Cups & Saucers, 18 Plates,
1 dish, 1 teapot, 1 Sugar Bowl
2 Bowls - 1 Snow shoes,
1 Basket, 1 tub, 1 Bowl, 1 Broom

2. ay handles, 1 pair lasts,
2. Buckets, 1 French Bible
1 pair Pillow Cases, 1 Window Blind, 1 small trunk or Wood Box with sundry scraps of writing in it — ~~1 Chest~~ 1 Chest with sundries, in it, the articles worth nothing almost that are in the Chest — 6 old Books, in the Chest,

Mr Johnstone says he has a claim against these things for the balance of an account, of a Rent, & that he will not deliver the Clock till he is paid

---

at Thomas Hackett's, told Mr Hackett, stated that they had Cloth & trimmings for a suit of clothes, to wit, a long Coat, a Vest, & a pair of Trowsers, which come from Miss W. King's Eyes, not made up &
that Taylor the deceiver owed Hackett, 4/ or 5/for making a pair of trowsers forming. Hackett was at Puton —

---

at Lower Laundrys —

1 Bed tick, 3, Blankets, 2
Chairs, 1 Round Table, 10 Book spines, kind, 20 or 3 Knives & the same number of Spoons & plates, some old.

old clothes, 1 Silk & H Handkerchief — 2 Boxes with Sundry papers —

---

Supposed to be at, the following places

---

Watch of Hitchcock or Jeddies in Paton —

McGILL UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES
ACC. NO. 2211/3
REF. 5