

Boston May 15th 1849
21 & 22 Lewis Wharf

Mess^{rs} James Dawson Son Gentl.

Mr W B Muzzey handed me a letter he rec^d from you a few days since, soliciting consignments of Flour - By his recommendation of your house I have been induced to send 100 M^{ts} of Flour, as per Bill Lading and Invoice herewith enclosed - I think this flour is very suitable for your market - It is perfectly sound and sweet & in good order - I secured it from the manufacturer - 50 M^{ts} Superior & 50 M^{ts} Coars flour

I wish you would make a prompt sale, as I do not wish to have it held any considerable length of time for better prices, & remit me the proceeds -

I am constantly in receipt of large quantities of flour, of various qualities, from manufacturers, & if your market will warrant it, I can make further shipments - Please inform me the state of your market, & the quantity you can probably sell - the average time it requires to make sales &c &c

Respy^{ly} Yours

(Signed) W^m Blanchard

Gentl - Above I hand you copy of letter with Bill Lading & Invoice of 100 M^{ts} flour, sent you 15 inst - but as I did not pay the postage at Boston, the letter probably lay in the office at the Line - You will upon receipt of this please get the letter & also remit me -

Respy^{ly} You
