Mr James Brown

Pictou-

Bellevue 7th July - 1860

My dear Sir,

I enclose to your care a letter for Mr. Tidman which I write feel obliged by your mailing & paying postage on account of my private funds. I can't pay here. I am very sorry Mr. Williams did not himself write from Halifax as I fear I may be too late for the Packet. I do not know however exactly when she goes -

With kind regards

I am Sir,

James Weddell
