

August & September 1850

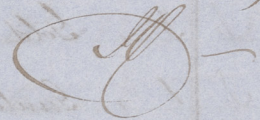

Messrs James Dawson & Co
Pictou N.S.

Gentlemen

We had the pleasure on the 6th of June last and are since in possession of your respective favours with enclosures under dates June 1st/50 20/50 July 6/50 & 18/50 and we have now the pleasure to hand you Invoices & Bills of Lading for Nine Packages of Goods Shipped by "Montgomery" Chisholm Master which we hope may reach you safely in good time & give every satisfaction. By some mistake in haste in forwarding the Certificate for the Playing Cards we were prevented from shipping them with the other goods and there is also a few Reams of Paper and a few Steel Pens & Drawing Pencils which we will have put up & sent as to Liverpool to go by Halifax as we find there will not be an opportunity for Pictou direct, we hope these will also reach you safe & in time, we will forward the Invoice of them by next Steamer. We continue returning you many thanks for past & soliciting a Continuance of kind Commands. We are Gentlemen

Yours truly

James O'Say
