Cases No 38 & 39, J.D. J.H. are for Mr Jas D. Hazard, Charlotte Town which oblige by attending too, they are included in your Bill of Lading, as also insured in same Policy - and proportion of charges has been debited to his account.

Each of any new work published by Gall, Cliphant & Co suitable for S. School Libraries at 1/6 or none published

By Baxter's Writings sent and not ordered - You ordered "Baxter's Works" along with various Vols of the U. P. Fathers, and as there was no such Book in that series, we concluded this was the Book you wanted.

Note - In reference to the U. P. Missy Records for Messrs Dawson we have inquired of the Publisher, who ordered them & their impression has always been that they were for you, hence our paying them - we have requested them to forward as usual till the end of the year, and then stop them if the parties who receive them do not write and remit the amount for the following year - By doing this they will be charged to the proper parties and mistakes will not occur again. The Scott's Temp. Review has been regularly forwarded since ordered, to the same address as the 2 Nos you received - those Nos you have not got will still be lying at the Post Office - please apply for them - we have told the agent the correct address now.
