Mr J Waddell called to day and stated that the L N Tract Society had in 1848 granted him £10 value of their Publications and £2 in Tracts on his paying the sum of £5 Sterling not having made this payment he had never got the Books and Tracts, and he desired to know whether we would give him the amt of this Grant from our Stock and lay the matter before the Society for their approval. he also paid us at same time £5 currency and promised the Num^r soon thereafter he said was to get half the Grant and N John the other — we consented to do so and gave him an assortment of Tracts weighing 8 1/2 lbs
