Dear Sir

Agreeably to your letter of 5th inst we have sent the above to Messrs Oliver & Boyd. We have received the Printed List of Notes for the 2nd 2/ which we have placed to your credit, and it would be ^{very} in future that you state the same sent. (This is set down in your letter of 5th inst) that we may know the sum is correct, for in your previous letter you said you had sent £5 while it was only £1. See our letter 24th June. We hope you have traced the error.

We are Dear Sir
yours truly

W. Whyte & Co
