Bunick Hall, and this is attributed to an ex-professor dismissed some time ago as not very competent, and who has no love to the institution.

We are all very well.
I have had no colds, and that my work is just as much as I can well manage, most of it is agreeable work, and I feel nothing the worse of it.

Henry McRay expects to leave soon for Putnam, and can tell you about us.

Give best wishes to Agnes & Margaret & the children & Miss Sedgwick and best wishes -

Yours very affectionately
William
