My dear Sir

I have been engaged in Preaching here for some weeks but expect to return to Pictou in a few days. I owe you a Bill for Books towards which I enclose you Two Pounds merely to let you know that I do not forget it and will when I return pay you the amount. Hoping this arrangement will be satisfactory and wishing you to send me the Bill.

I remain Yours

Wm Hall

P.S. I am sorry for your loss by the fire at Montreal. every thing is uncertain in this uncertain world
