My Dear
Sir

I received your letter the 12th, and am much obliged for the particular statement which you gave respecting the books. I shall now give you the name of the book for which I want a key it is as follows An Introduction To Practical Geometry & Mensuration By Wm Bourycastle, revised and improved by the Rev G. C Eyson, M. A. and if you have a key to answer the above mentioned book please send it The other books which I wish you to send are two of Reed's Compositions and a Key I may also state that I do not want you to send the composi-tions without the Key

I shall now enclose fifteen Shillings to you wishing you to pay for this letter and let the remaining seven pence half pence go for the postage of the books to me. Please send them without delay

Yours Truly
