

We got a wrong article from you last time for Porte Monnaie nothing but a useless leather Pochet Book not worth 1/2 the price charged - we have never ordered them from Messrs. Ouzon & Co.

By last mail we were offered at this Post office another copy of "American Traits of Indian Life" - we had ^{known} ^{you} one before and do not think we ordered 2, be this as it may - you only put 6^d Postage and it was chargeable with 13^d and according to law your fine payment was forfeited so the fine therefore surpassed of 6^d and making the sum demanded five 1/9 Shilling - our pleas, rises against paying a fine in such circumstances & therefore we refused the Book if it goes back to you - you may pay the above charge if you will and sell it for what the net Proceeds - it would
