Messrs. James Dawson & Son.
Pictou

Dear Sirs

I herewith enclose to you five pounds which please place to my credit and I trust in a short time to remit you the balance - business has been so completely suspended here during the winter that it was utterly in vain to ask your debtors for money. But now there is a fair prospect of selling deals which will circulate money more freely - I annex a small order for a few books which you shall not lay out of a great while

I am yours respectfully

Charles W de Wolfe
