Union Bank of Halifax,
OCTOBER 1ST, 1856.

The Board of Directors have decided upon initiating their Banking operations on or about the 13th instant, and they would appeal to the large and influential body constituting their Stock List for their countenance and support, in carrying out the objects of the Institution.

The UNION BANK OF HALIFAX will be prepared to negotiate Bills of Exchange on Great Britain and the United States, to open ordinary Current Accounts, and to receive special Deposits on interest at 3 per cent. per annum, for the sum of £25 and upwards, such deposits remaining in the Bank three months, or not entitled to interest, fifteen days notice being invariably required before withdrawal.

W. S. STIRLING,
Cashier.
