

Boston Octo 18. 1856

Chas J Dawson & Co
Gents

We enclose invoice of 12 Rolls Curtains sent to you in answer to your favor of Octo 10th, enclosing twenty two dolls in bank bills - In reply to your remarks with regard to the price of curtains purchased elsewhere, we have only to say that for the quality of goods, we think there is no one disposed to sell goods at a less price than we are. We have taken a discount of 5% from this bill for cash, which will make the price the same as you paid elsewhere. We have like wise allowed you a discount of 5% on goods purchased Aug 14. leaving a balance in your favor of $5.91/100

Yours very truly
J. B. Bigelow & Co

The enclosed envelope of 12 letters contains what you are anxious to give for of Oct 18 1856. I enclose my, thinking the title in book 1856 The paper is your former's with regard to the price of certain purchases. I think, in your early to say that for the quality of goods, we think that is no one superior to sell goods at a low price than we have. The book is a very of 170 for the use for book. which will make the price the same as you have elsewhere. We have taken care to answer you a statement of the in your former's book. I have a volume in your favor of $6.25/100
