THE SUBSCRIBERS are associated in business as Book-sellers, Stationers, Exchange Brokers, and Commission Merchants, under the style and firm of

E. G. FULLER & CO.

No. 35 Hollis Street, . . . . . Halifax, N. S.

They will give special attention to the purchase and shipment of every description of merchandise, the production of Nova Scotia and its fisheries, the sale of Goods on consignment, and the collection of drafts, bills, and accounts from foreign countries.

E. G. FULLER,
I. S. LEWIS.

A CARD.

American Book Store,

JANUARY 1, 1857

THE SUBSCRIBER acknowledges with gratitude the liberal patronage bestowed on him, since the establishment of the American Book Store in 1848, and respectfully solicits a continuance of the same to his successors E. G. FULLER & CO.

He takes this opportunity of assuring his former patrons, that his personal attention will still be continued to them in the new firm, and trusts still to merit a continuance of their support.

A respectful and urgent call is made upon all indebted to him, for immediate payment, and those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement.

E. G. FULLER.
