Dear Sirs

We are in receipt of your favor & in reply beg to say that the articles you complain of as sent duplicate are not so but in exact accordance with the orders sent. We regret that we had procured Hoag's Note Book & National Map before the receipt of your letter & consequently are obliged to send them. Such of the articles not sent ~~to~~ in the present despatch, as are procurable we will forward in next. Cassell's Child's Education we have before informed you has been discontinued for sometime, by the publishers.

We are, Dear Sirs,

Yours truly
George Philip & Son
