Mr. Dawson,

Dear Sir,

Your answer
I receive is before which I duly consider. In reply I must state, that my circumstances, will not justify my in offering for the whole. I will attend the Auction and compete for such articles as I will require. I thank you for your offer, which I think moderate, and for the trouble you have taken to accommodate me.

Yours very truly

Paul M. Donald

P.S. As regards the Books

1018. The "Protestants" do not order them in the same manner,
