

Pacton 15th Apr

Dear Mr. Scamson

I promised Agnes that I would send a line to you to night, merely to announce the happy marriage which took place to day at one o'clock.

She will write all particulars herself, when she gets to St John.

There were thirty three present - after lunch six carriages started for Rogers Hill where they are enjoying themselves just now

We are all very much pleased with Mr Stewart - I am sure he is a good and true man and will prove himself worthy of the good wife he has got she was a handsome bric every one said there was no one in the room to compare with her Leon Dupar is going up to Carpach soon we will send the meal with him

We are all well and write in love to you - remember us to Mr & Mrs Lumsden and the child ren - The mail is closing.

good night Sam McPhail
