

Saturday Evening
23rd Oct 1857

My dear Sir

There is a vessel to leave here tomorrow at 12 o'clock for Pictou. I have shipped the Box for James McPherson & Co. but thought you might have something else to send. I leave this on Monday for Boston or my way to Australia but will call and see you and Mr. Dawson before I go.

Yours very truly
J. W. Kay

J. W. Dawson Esq.

Enclose Bill Lading, and bill require value of Box to Clear at the Custom House, would it be too much trouble to furnish it in the morning
