

Letter J.W.D.
28 June 1858

Wesley Col
June 28

Dear Father.

Your telegram
only reached us, and we were rejoiced that you had had so good a voyage. Nothing noteworthy has occurred since you left. We have had intense heat, much more

So there is no word
at this season.

You are well Mr
I have escaped it,
as I am sure.

You can have nothing so appropriate in Peter.

I send by mail
two newspapers which will give you as much of our city says

as you care to know.

Margaret wants to see,

what Anna also is

troubled to do, but the heat has made her too weary

I shall not write again to Peter,

as I suppose you

will have left before

a letter of next

mail could reach.

Please do not give yourself any trouble about little matters of business that may be now settled. Most of them I have in hand. will work round in time.

If Mr. Pheasant has
the old sword I spoke of,
please pay for it for me, and bring it
with you.

Give our best wishes to all friends, not forgetting Mrs. Patterson. May God grant you a pleasant journey & safe return from my truly affectionate
W. Dawson
