My dear Sir -

I learn that after the
the government will not
Mr. G. F. Debenham
but will suspend buying in fact reaches England, prices from him (some here) future prices. I think now the effect of this I think to lower them in their tell such time as the government affair bags but then I think they may be higher. as this last, however, is doubtful perhaps the more prudent course would be to sell now; the more so as far as you a profit on them.
As to other securities, Bonds of all kinds & mortgages do not just now give good returns; nor indeed do Bank notes, at their high prices; but they seem the best investments
