

Pictou, June 30, 1857.

Having this day transferred to the firm of Mess'rs James MacPherson & Co., the business heretofore carried on by us, with the stock and good will thereof, we beg leave to introduce these gentlemen to you as our successors, and to express the hope, which we confidently entertain, that your transactions with them may prove mutually satisfactory.

Your obedient servants,

Notes
transfer to
Mr. Sherman & Co

1887

CH 380

NOTICE

Is hereby given, that the Firm of JAMES DAWSON & SON having been this day dissolved by mutual consent, the business in

BOOKS AND STATIONERY,

heretofore carried on by the said firm, has been transferred, with the Stock thereof, to the Firm of

JAMES McPHERSON & CO.,

who are hereby respectfully recommended to its customers for a continuance of their patronage.

All persons having unsettled accounts with the late firm, or its partners, are requested to settle the same immediately, with the undersigned, in Pictou, or, after his departure, with MESS'RS PRIMROSE & SON.

JAMES DAWSON,

For J. DAWSON & SON.

The subscribers beg to announce their intention to carry on the above business, at the old stand; and trust that their large and well assorted Stock, with punctual attention to orders, will enable them to merit the patronage of the public.

JAMES McPHERSON & CO.

PICTOU, June 30, 1857.