

MY TRIP ABROAD

Dear Dr Payers,

I decided I would rather send Miss Newton my little present on your return to Montreal. I cannot let you go, however, without sending some little expression of friendship at the entrance of this new period of happiness in your life. So I got this little book for you, hoping you will use it on your

Diary of Dr. W. Gordon M. Byers and his bride who travelled to Europe 1911 on their honeymoon before taking up residence in Montreal.

Graduated from McGill in 1894

With Faculty of Medicine at McGill.

Head of Ophthalmology Dept 36 years with Royal Victoria Hospital until Retirement 1937.

trip, and that it will serve to refresh your memories of a happy time abroad - when you come home.

I send it with warm good wishes to you both for every future happiness.

Your sincere friend

Maudie Abbott

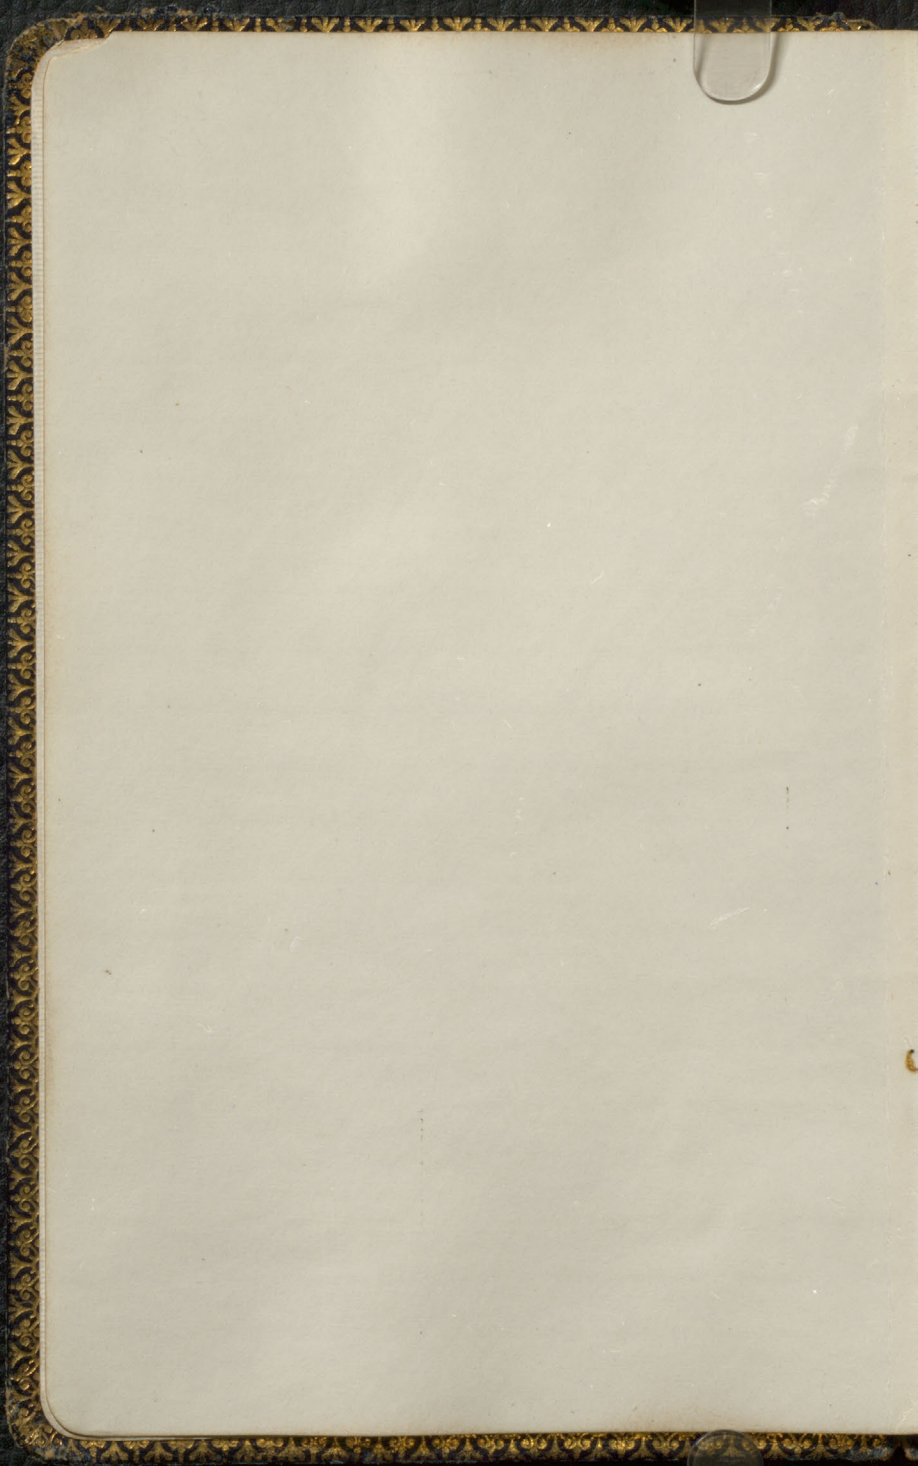

76 Elster Street

Montreal

Nov. 24. 11

He was my husband's father (Dorace n. Byes)

Nov. 29, 1911 - Feb 10 - 1912

"Gem" Series.

My Trip Abroad.

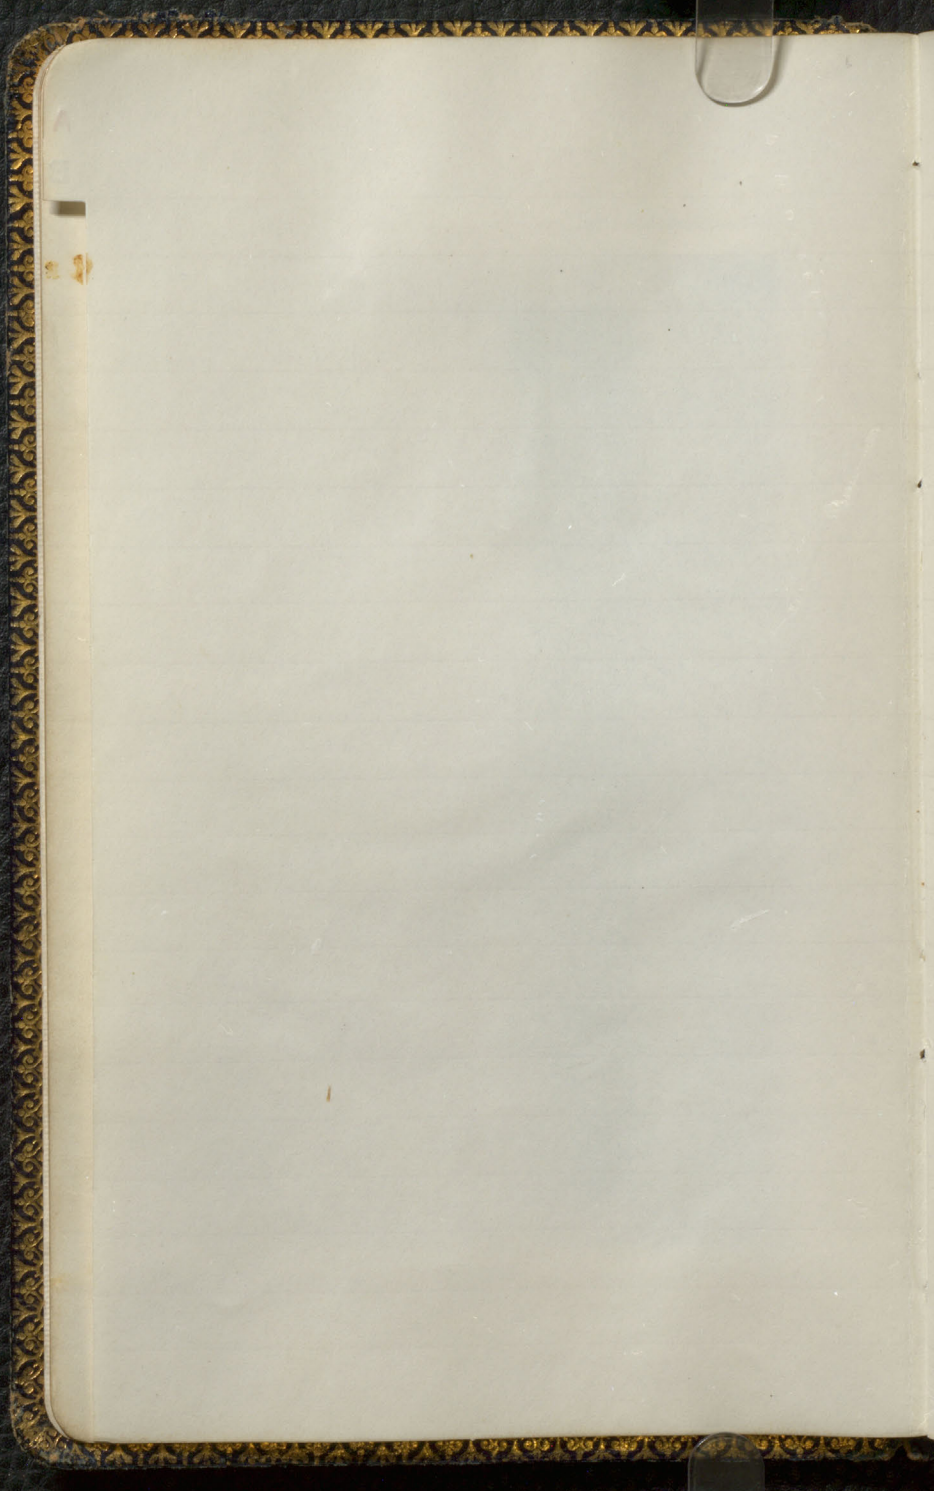

LONDON:

Thomas De La Rue & Co. Limited.

WHITE STAR R.M.S. ADRIATIC
25,000 TONNAGE, 726 FT. LENGTH, 75 FT. BREADTH, 80 FT. DEPTH.

A B C D E F
G
H I K
L
M N O P Q
R
S T V
W X
Y Z

C

D

E

F

G

H

I

K

L

M

N

O

P

Q

R

S

T

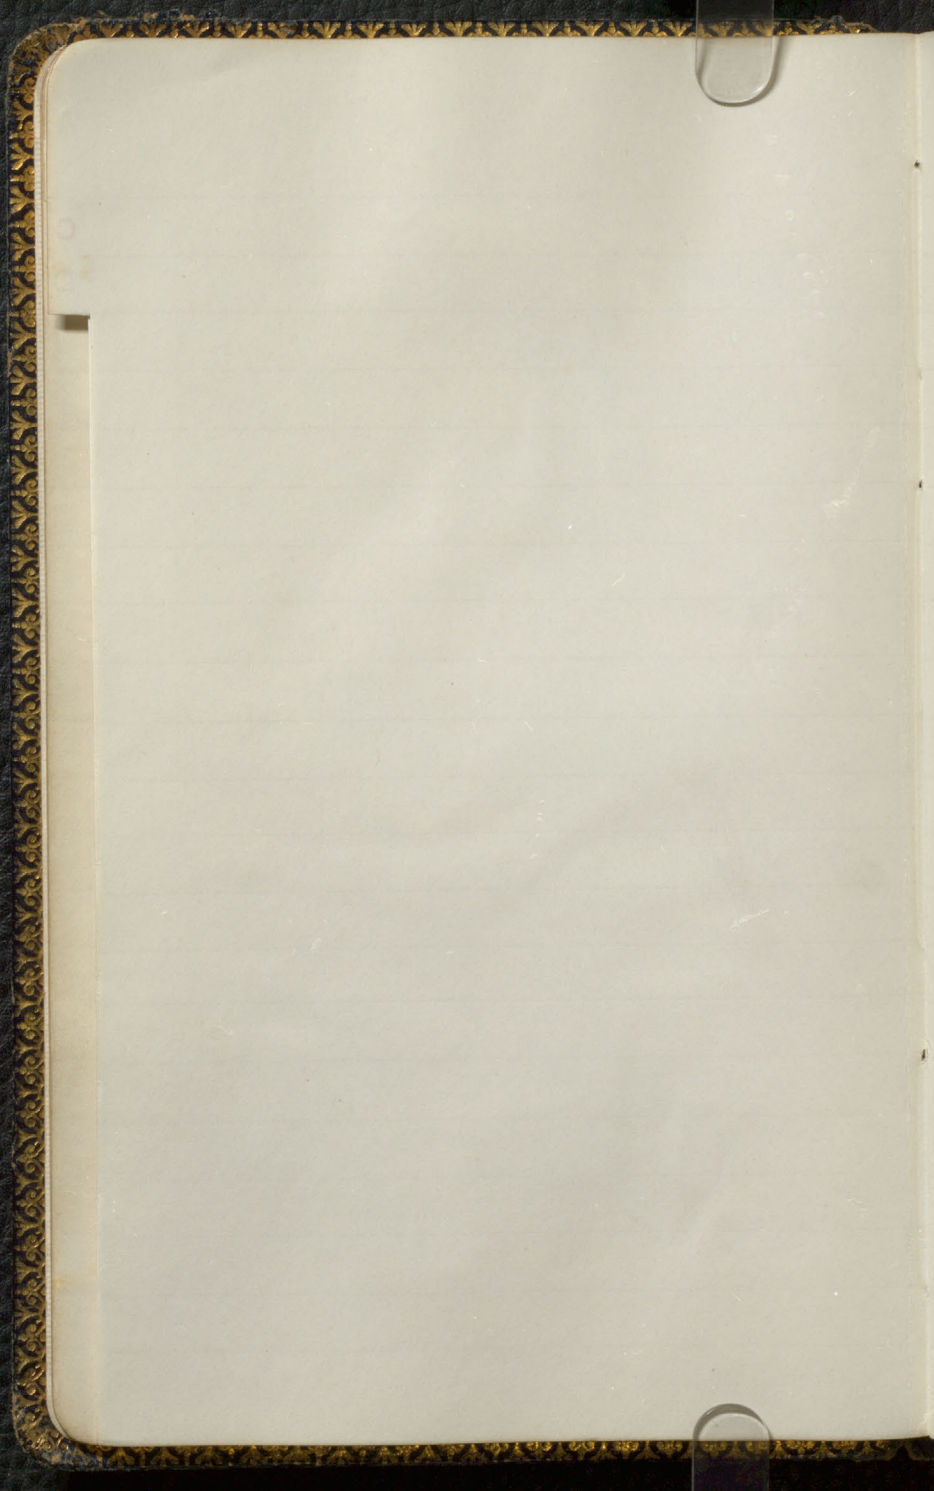

V

W

X

Y

Z

E

F

G

H

I

K

L

M

N

O

P

Q

R

S

T

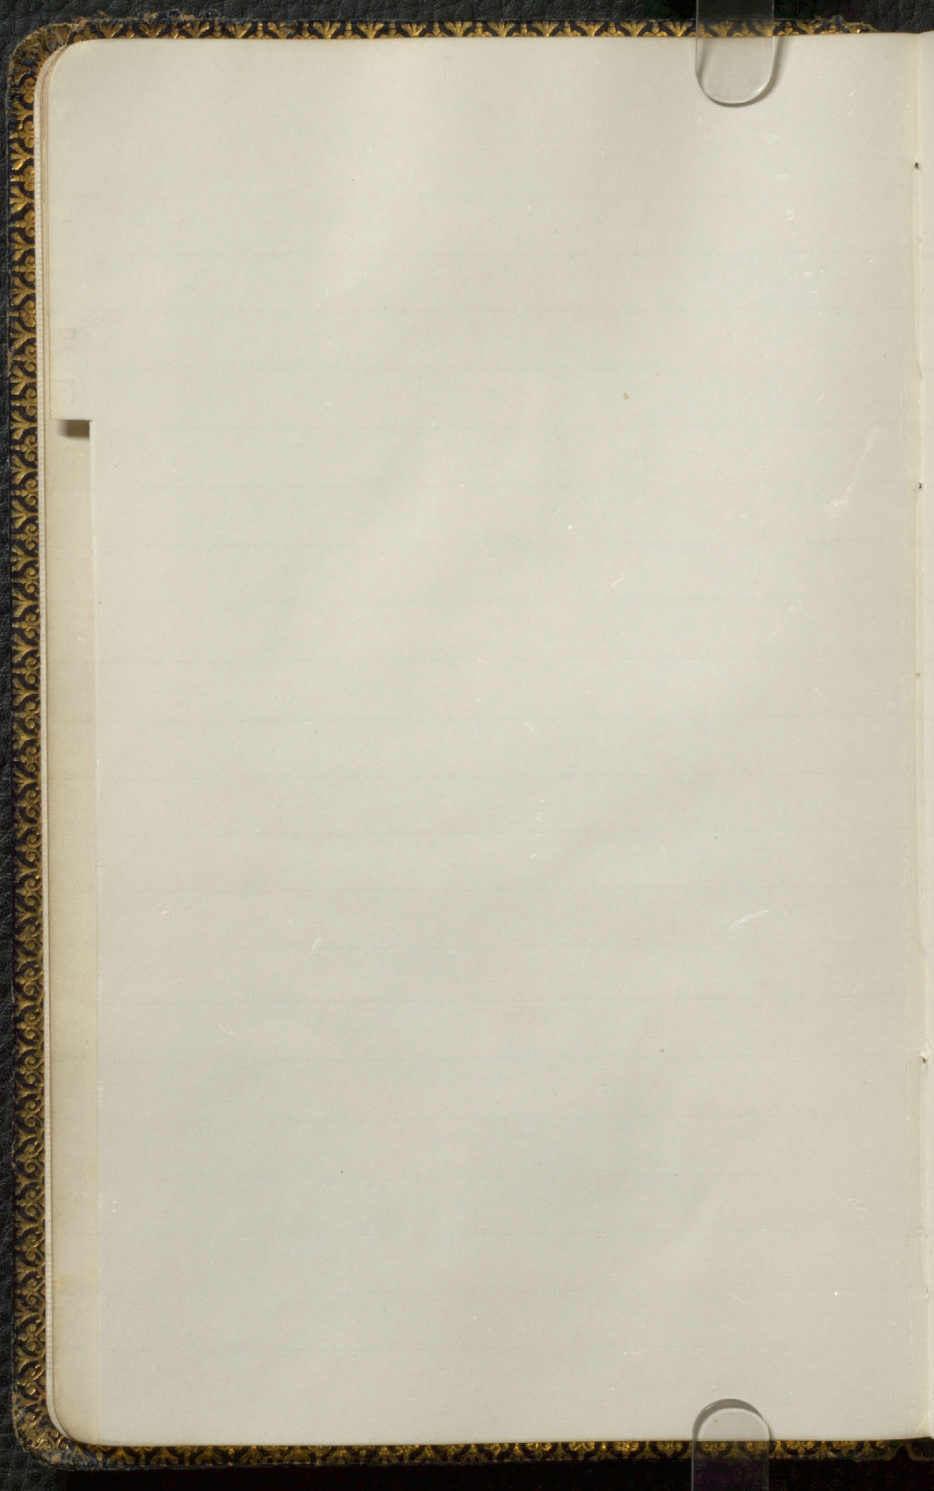

V

W

X

Y

Z

G

H

I

K

L

M

N

O

P

Q

R

S

T

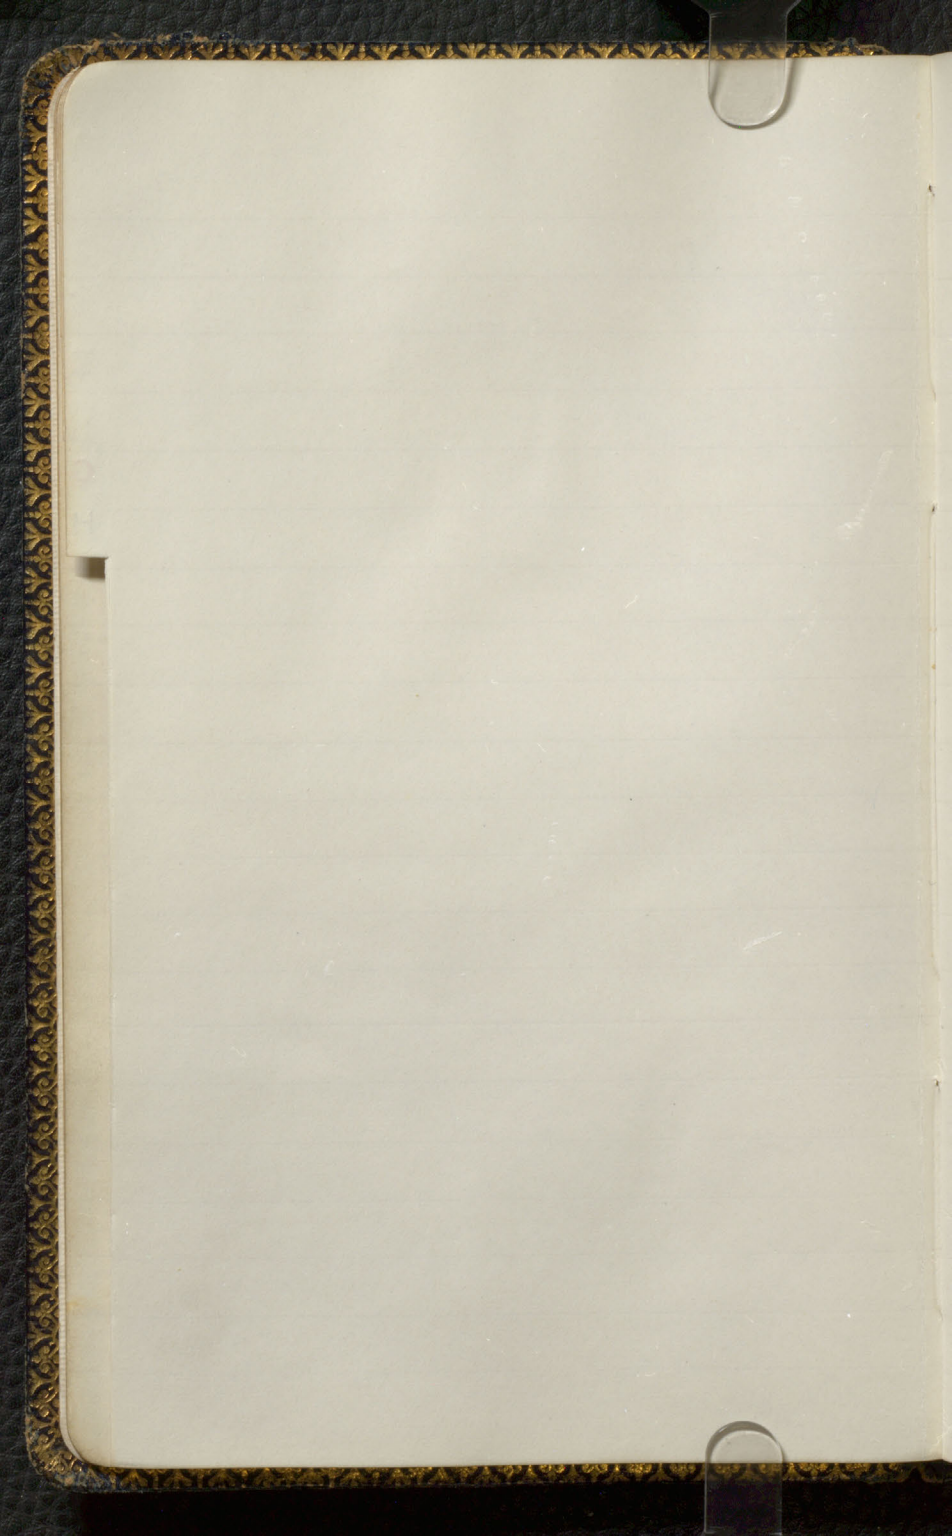

V

W

X

Y

Z

I

K

L

M

N

O

P

Q

R

S

T

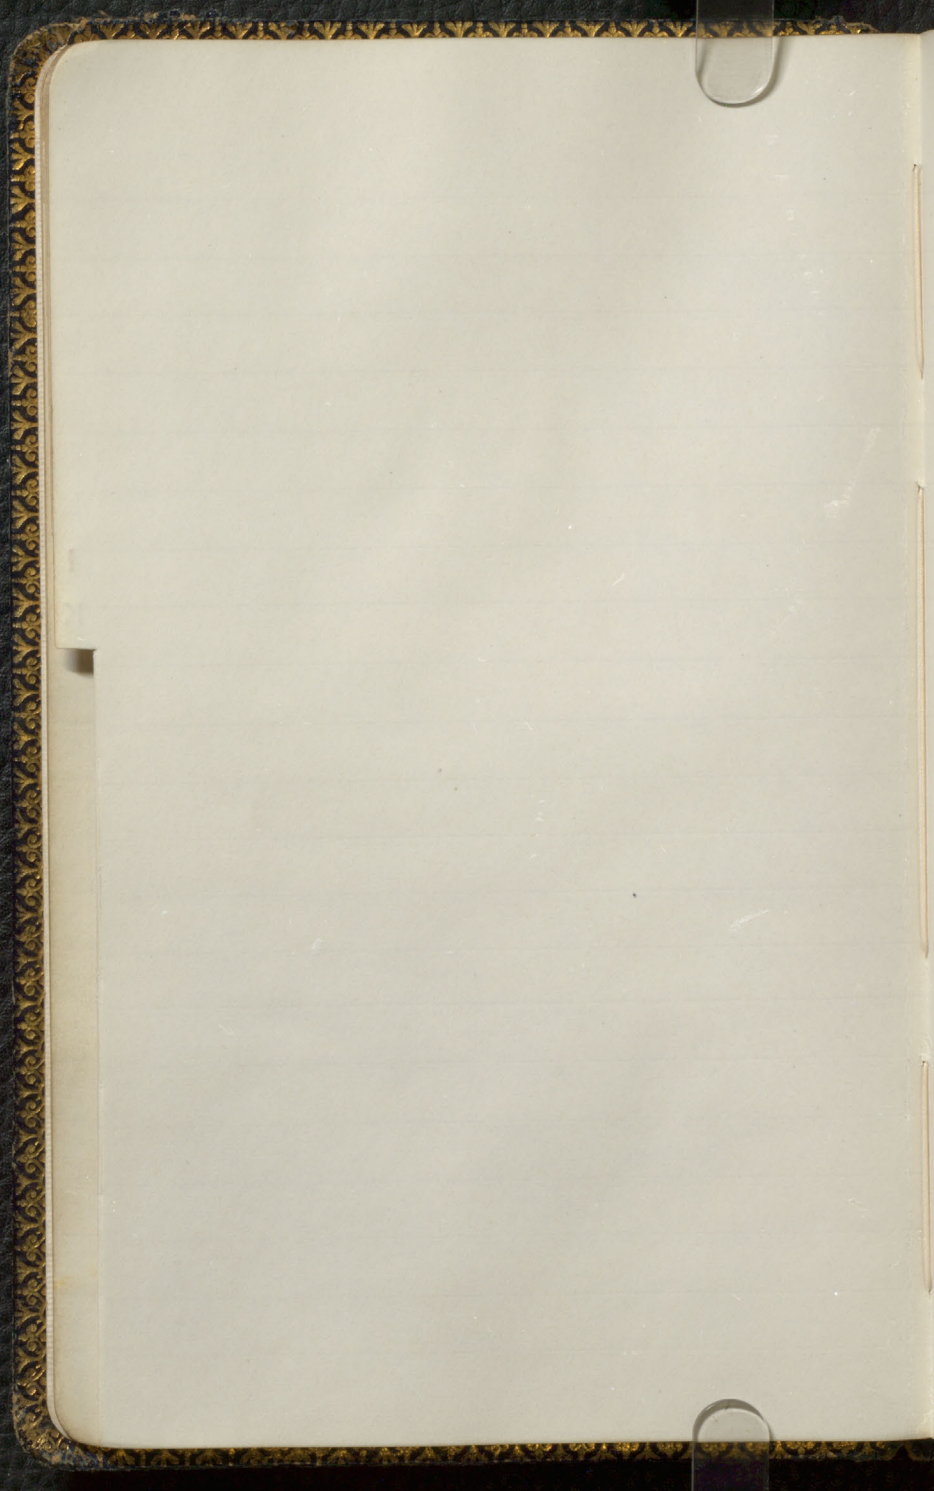

V

W

X

Y

Z

L

M

N

O

P

Q

R

S

T

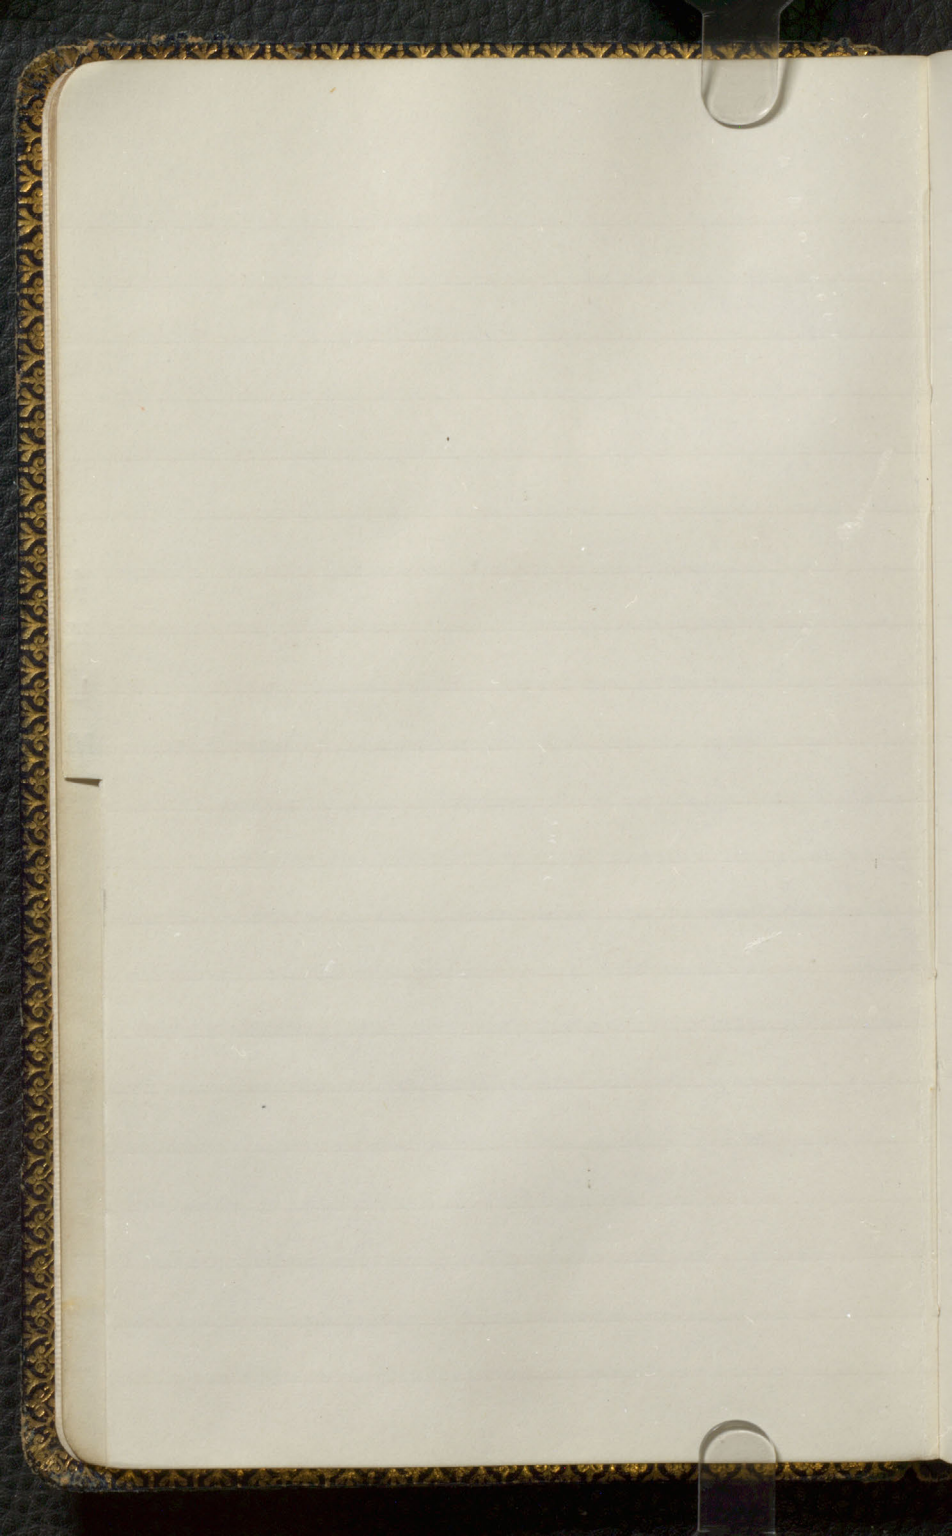

V

W

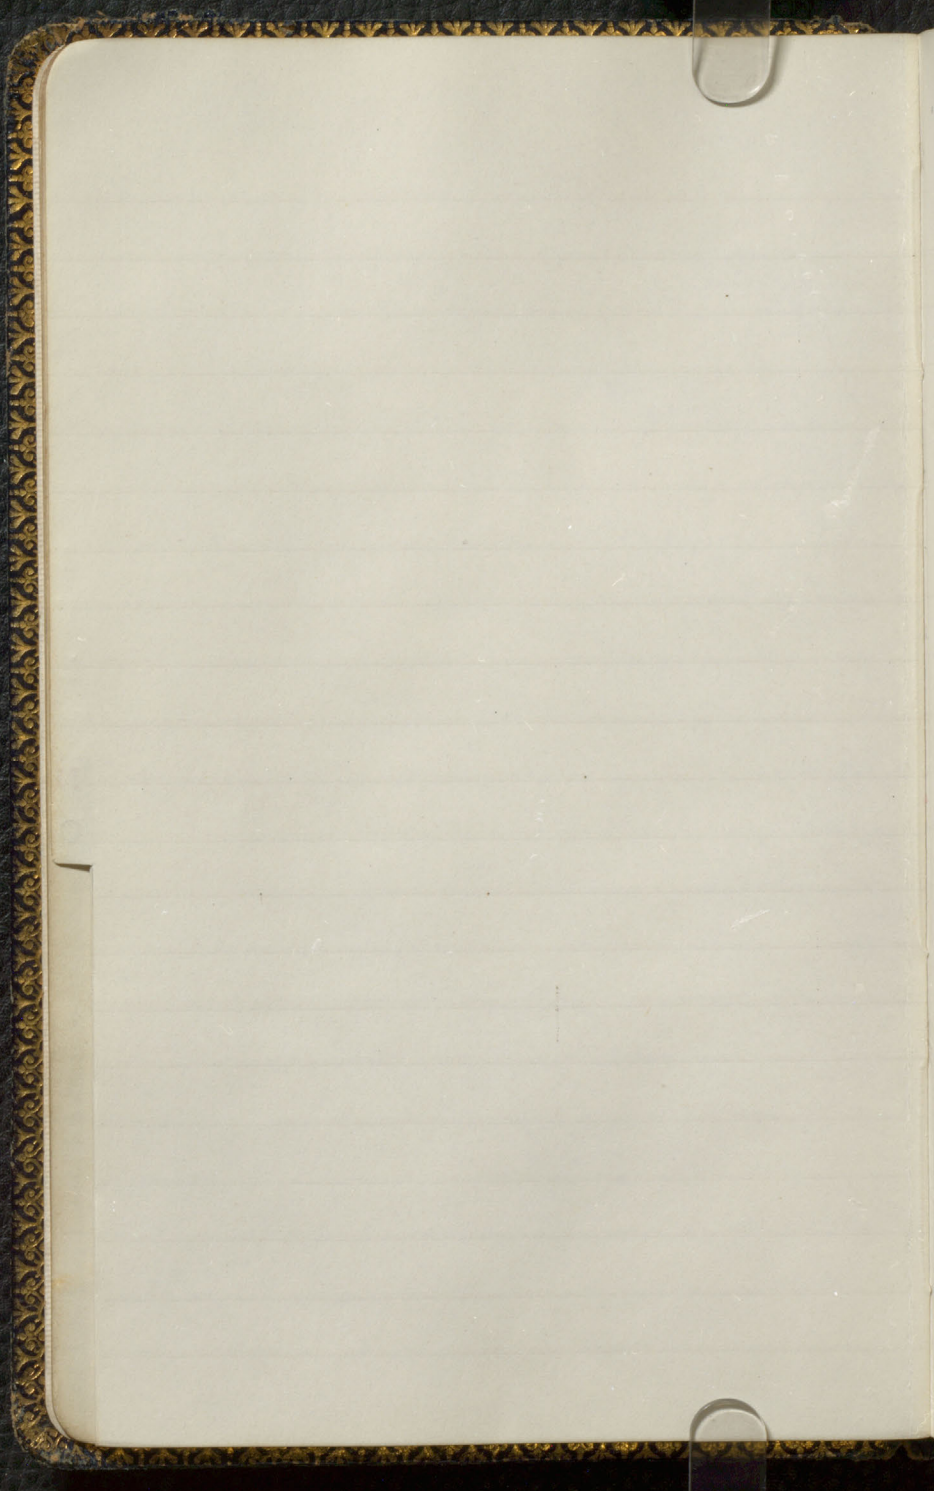

X

Y

Z

N O P
Q
R
S T V
W X
Y Z

P

Q

R

S

T

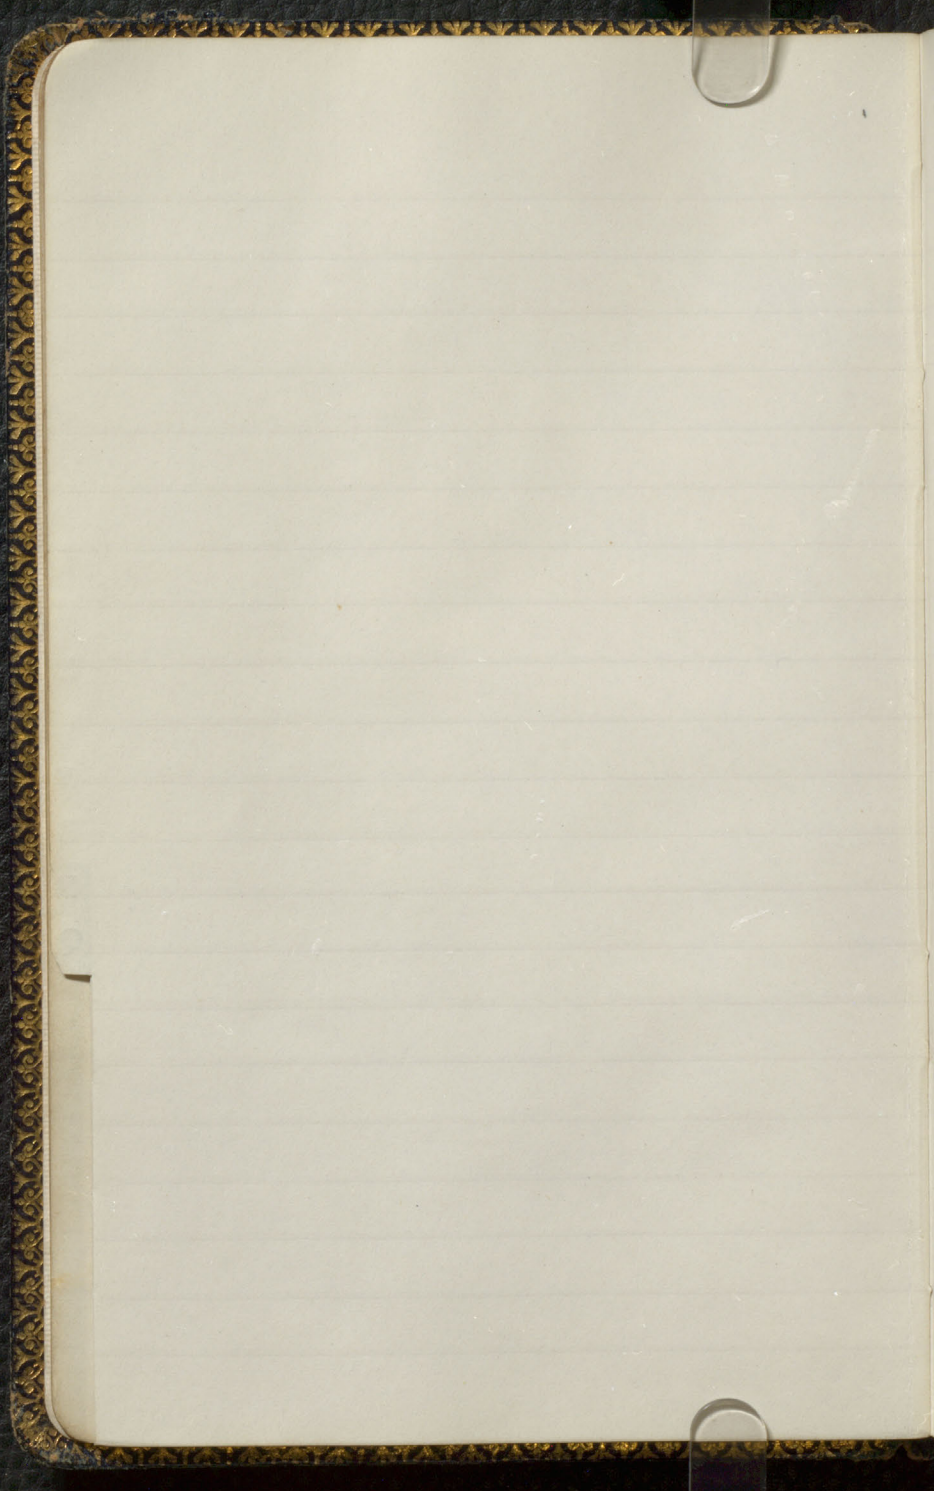

V

W

X

Y

Z

R

S

T

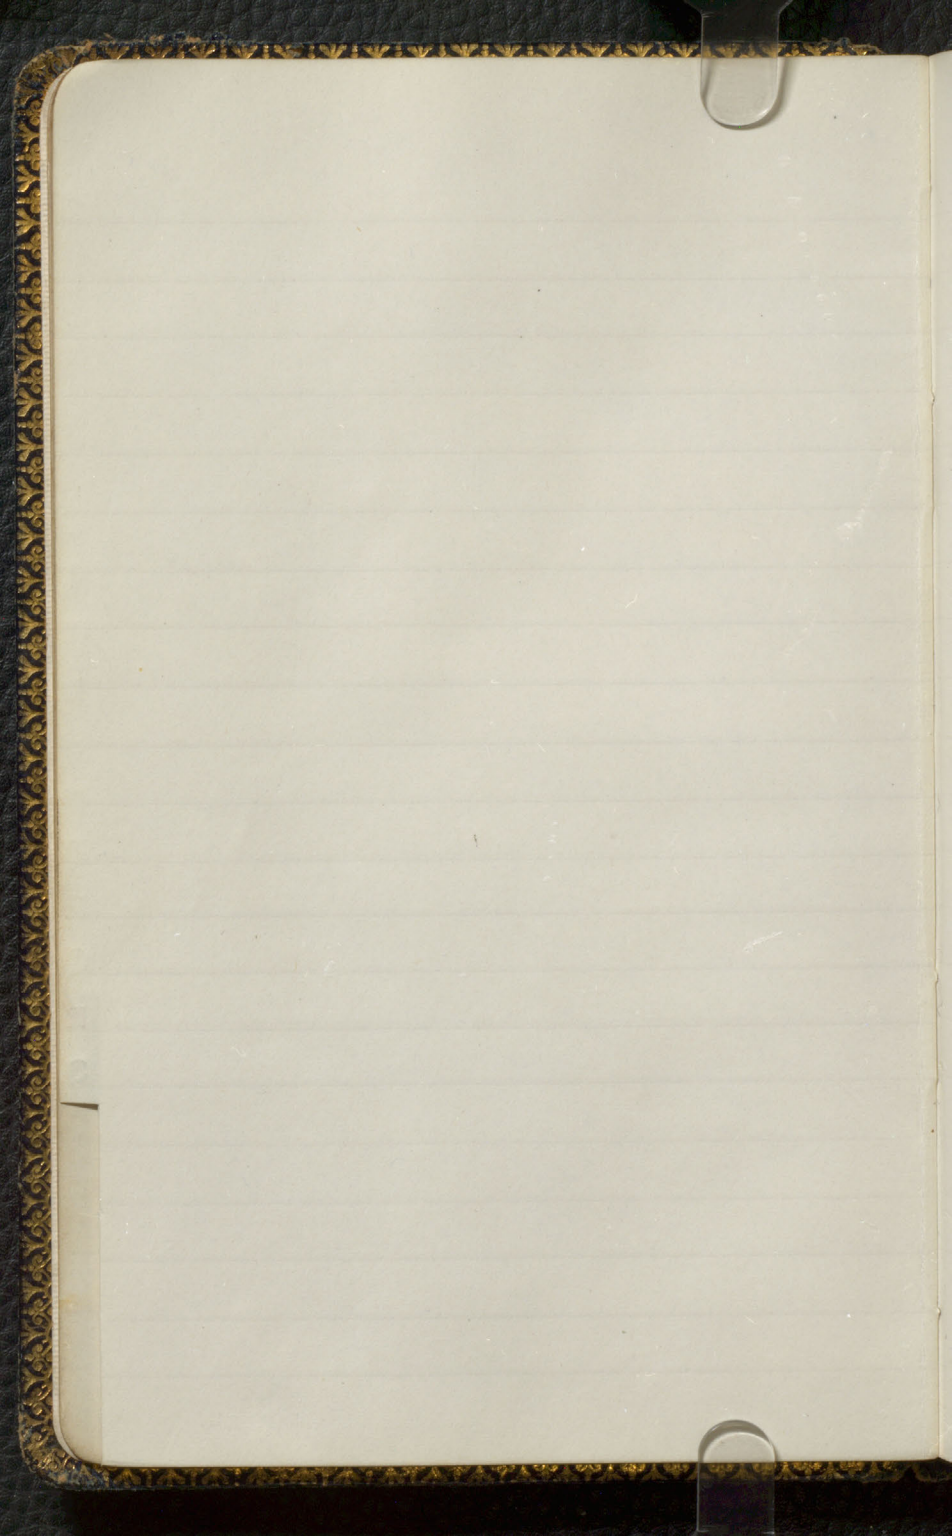

V

W

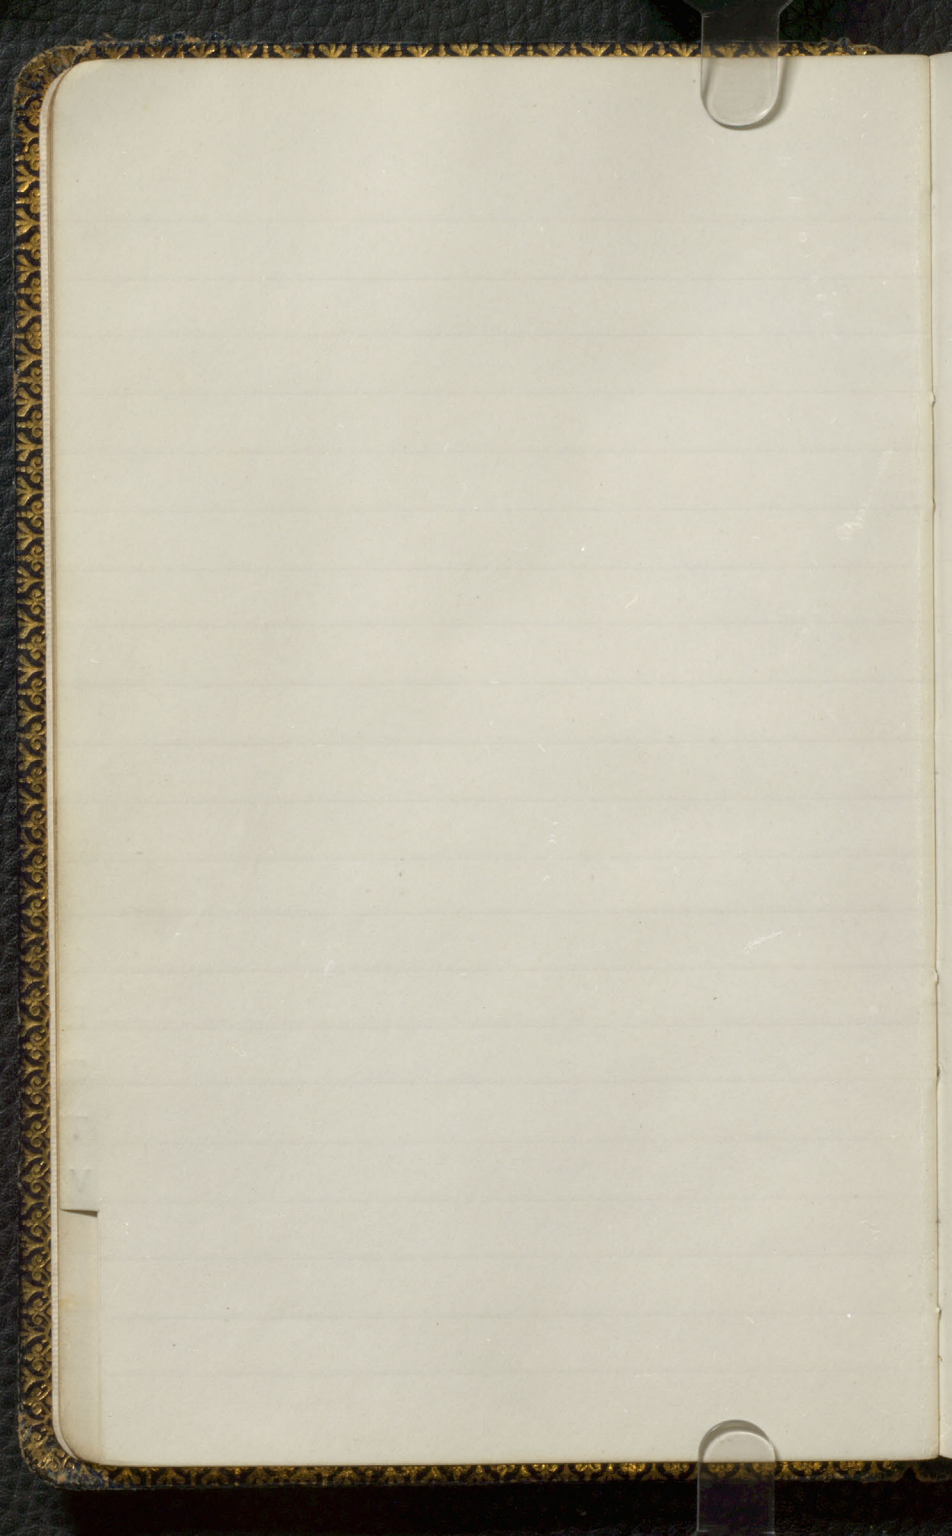

X

Y

Z

T V
W X
Y Z

W

X

Y

Z

PLACES VISITED

Y
Z

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Nov. 29 - 11.

Place

Hamilton, Ont. Canada.

The marriage of Dr. W. G. M. Byers, of Montreal, and Miss Jean Newton, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Newton, was solemnized this afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, 126 McNab St., Hamilton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Drummond, pastor of McNab Street Presbyterian Church. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a lovely gown of Japanese embroidered crepe de chine, with garniture of silver and pearl fringe. A silver spray fastened the bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. Miss Elizabeth Newton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was attired in blue satin mousseline. The two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Newton and Miss Jean Malloch, wore pale yellow satin with wreaths of small yellow-rose buds in their hair, and they carried sheaves of chrysanthemums. The groomsman was Mr. W. E. Brough, of Brockville. Dr. and Mrs. Byers will spend their honeymoon in Europe, and on their return will reside at 346 Mountain Street, Montreal.

A nice, comfortable morning gave place to a beautiful, sunny afternoon. We enjoyed watching the brown tints of the autumn landscape and the fine sunset from the windows on our way to Buffalo.

PLACES VISITED.

Date Nov. 29:11 (Kamukron, Cal.)

Place Signatures of the guests.

David Newton

Ethel Faust-Newton

P. B. Hammond wife =

* Elizabeth H. Newton

* G. R. G. Newton

Maigorie Newton.

Berdee Arkle

sub. manual

P. A. Macdonald

G. W. W. W.

Matha Campbell

Graham Campbell.

W. B. Martin

* Those who showed saw us off at the train.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Nov. 29 - 11

Place

Kamieton.

Lillie Clark.

*

Jeanie Forsyth

Emily Clarke

*

A. J. Rogers

Hope Buckworth.

*

Ridley Mackenzie

O. S. Clark

*

Fred. Cook.

E. J. O. Turner

*

Kathleen Clark.

L. M. Martin

E. Maude Martin.

Larrie Bull Mackay

Christine Kammerer

Grace Malloch.

*

M. Marie Douglas

Jean O. Malloch.

PLACES VISITED.

Date Nov. 29 - 11.

Place Buffalo, N.Y.

We reached the Hotel Stables about 8 o'clock and had a nice dinner in the grill room.
 We heard then the music of the top-fifers in another part of the building where a Scotch banquet was taking place. Jean was a little bit nervous during the meal, thinking of her father whom she had just behind and wondering if the Proclamation of the wedding would have any outward effect on his condition. afterwards we went for a walk; but it was too cold and windy, so we turned ^{in to} the theatre, which we happened to find, and saw some very good Vaudeville. "Nobody can understand me but myself."

PLACES VISITED.

Date Nov. 30 - 11 ("Thanksgiving" Day in U.S.)

Place on board on S.C. "Lumber" and New York -

Another beautiful, sunny day. We left Buffalo at 9.20 a.m. ^{on} ^{assignment-} and thoroughly enjoyed the boat--ful run, skimming as we did the banks of the Mohawk & of the Hudson rivers. Our route took us through Rochester, and Albany. We had lunch on the train and it was quite good where we reached the 42nd St. Station which was undergoing very extensive changes.

In a short time we were at the "Schlager" Hotel (Suite 21) where rooms had been previously engaged. After dinner we heard the "Three Buses", - a very amusing comic opera at the "Globe" Theatre.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 1 - 1911.

Place

New York.

Our fine weather continued, after a poor breakfast, we went for a walk down 5th Avenue, calling first on Mrs. Smith, Librarian at the Academy (Phys. Surgeons, 43rd St. then we turned thru the U.S. Public Library, and afterwards called on Dr. Alex. Juane (unprofessionally) on E. 34th St. We saw B. Surfaud's house on the way, took and dined in at Tiffany's. Jean bought a cap for aboard ship at Ackmann's (then just shopping in New York), and then we walked ^{ed} down as far as Madison Sq. from there we drove on top of a motor omnibus to the entrance to Central Park where we admired statue of General Sherman. A walk took to the Schuyler completed the morning.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 11

Place

New York (Carl's.)

After luncheon we took another ride on top of the omnibus along the Riverside Drive as far as Grant's monument, which we entered. Then we walked to the Natural History Museum, where we stood some while closing time. The accumulated cases representing birds in their natural environments were particularly engaged. From here we went to the "Plyza" Hotel and had tea. Among the crowd of people there we happened to see Mr. DeForest, the celebrated U. S. Senator. After an excellent dinner we saw John Drew in a "Single Man", a very funny farce at the "Empire". Our walk home took us along "The Front White Walk" - Broadway.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 2 - 11.

Place

New York

up lectures, breakfast, and packing. Then down to see boat after buying some dress shirts on Broadway. The arrangements for getting on board were very good, and the porter who took us in charge was very nice.
 On arriving, we received quite a number of farewell letters, — from J. Abbott, J. Stone, Miss Forsyth, Swales, C. P. Byles, Mrs. Bee (card),
 Binnett's (telegram), Mrs. Newton, Lily + Margorie Newton, Mrs. Joseph. Miss Ince, Miss Dorothy Henderson, Mrs.
 Justworth, Miss Kauffman, Miss S., Ben Adder, Miss F. Greenwood, Mrs.
 Howard.

We got away all right, tho we were a little late in starting. The "Kalam" people were cinematographing as we drew one from the pier.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 3rd to 8th

Place

S.S. Adriatic,

Beautiful weather all the way. So far, tho' for the preceding weeks ships have been having the roughest kind of passages.

The ship - Surgeon, Jt. Comm. Rice, has been most kind to us. We have been all the while in the dining room by invitation & often in his room for coffee after meals.

We have been very comfortable and sleeping all the while on, was, - a little squeamish for a couple of days, but not really sea-sick. Last night after an Esplanade fine dinner we had a very nice dance on deck, which was described for the event.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 9 - '11.

Place

Funchal, Madeira.

We awoke to find ourselves at this place, while waiting to go ashore in the tender, after breakfast, we watched men and boys diving into ^{clear} blue water for silver coins thrown into the sea by the passengers on the Atlantic. Adhering natives also came on board with large quantities of saun wood and embroidery to sell. This they arranged in spaces reserved for them along the side of the cabin of the promenade deck. Shortly after breakfast

We were taken ashore in a steam-launch, and dived from the landing place to the foot of the incline railway in the form in the curious sled-like vehicles

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 9. 11

Place

Jumbie (Cul's.)

Drove by open, passed to the island, while waiting for the mountain car, while we had just dined, we purchased p. cards of the place in a corner store nearby. At eleven o'clock we were taken by the car wheel down away up the side of the hill, and as we went chieftain ^{ran} alongside of us calling for names in response. The guards they threw up the engagements. A shot was fired the business platform brought us to the hotel where we had lunch on the veranda in the open air. A couple of stewards from the Adantic, who had come up, saw us were served. We en-

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 9-11.

Place

Funchal, Azores.

In the insignificant view from our high situation, it being possible to see many miles in every direction so clear was the atmosphere. After luncheon, coffee, another postal card was sent to various friends in Canada - the descent from the table was made in the machine sleds down the gravel-paved ways, and was quite exciting.
 After a walk thru the public square and thru the public gardens ^{of} ~~the~~
 the town we returned to the ship in time for afternoon tea.
 At five o'clock the Admiral's winged anchor was hoisted hoisted for Funchal. We watched the vessel shove off, and saw the land lights come out one by one.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 11 - '11.

Place

Piraeus

The electric animal bus early in the morning after an uneventful trip from Greece. We were alone for some three hours: ^(10 a.m. to 1 p.m.) the weather was a little cool and windy, but clear and bright and pleasant. We drove first to Europa point, visiting the gardens and watching the soldiers undergoing "Gymnastic" drill in preparation for the visit of the King (No. 5) ^{on their return} from the front at Dothi. ~~as usual~~, then back thru the town & over some beautiful grounds to the Spanish town, which, however, we did not visit. We were partly impressed by the sight of the garden & the hill. The whole appearance of the place, everything being apparently new for instant action,

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 12 - 11. 1922

Place

Cape Town

Another sunny, moderate, warm day.
 we got aboard about 3.30 p.m. & were taken by Cook for a brief drive thru the town and along the ^{on the} coast behind the pier. It was just passing dark as we again entered the city: and was dark when we came to the Pomeroy place.
 Our guide took us to the Pomeroy quarter then back to the bank, which brought us again to the Atlantic about 9.30 p.m. Dinner on board. Cape is impressed as the do modernity, it brought to our surprise essentially a grand city;
 and by the way, excellent. Signs everywhere of development, improvement of the hygienic, commercial, and of medical conditions of the place.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 14 - '11.

Place

Lima.

a pleasant trip across from Callao, the one wireless band here the Pro. "Deletis", with the June questions of Juba + Chedden on board, two fine others in rough weather off the n.w. coast of Africa, district. we just left. This morning clear bright, tho. cold + windy.

A guide on the jolly took us in hand and then we first visited the Palazzo Jona: then out to Campo Santo by train. afterwards we visited the cathedral and the church of the "annunciata", walked thru the principal shopping streets, and saw the east face of the tower and the birth place of Christopher Columbus. We were impressed first by the modernity of the city, by the order everywhere of German influence.

PLACES VISITED.

Date Dec. 15, 11.

Place Naples.

an unusual fine trip thru the night:
 a beautiful sunrise ^{just} with a sudden the wind only and some "white caps" breaking sea surface of the very blue Mediterranean. Spent the rest of the shore before and on entering the bay of Naples.
 which was reached about 20:00.
 Found clearing from the 2100 road returning Herculano on seeing their native land again.

After a very noisy time in getting thru the customs under the guidance of a man from Cook's, we were taken in the hotel omnibus up to Parker's where we had a splendid room in ^{the} front of the house with private bath. After dinner we had early.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 16 - 11.

Place

Naples.

up Petrucci and, after breakfast, down to Cook's to arrange about our trip to Pon-fice to-morrow. Then we went up to the Museum via San Via Roma. Everywhere evidence of the war in Naples. — several bulletins, shells, marching boots, unboxing and loading of supplies at the docks etc. Leaving the Museum and one o'clock we drove to Cook's again for letters and then on to his restaurant for luncheon — beer & eggs, sauce, etc. Afterwards Jan. & started raining while here so we were unable as intended to visit San Martino. Instead we went thru the Piazza del Plebiscito and along the water front (Via Caracciolo) to the Aquarium which we visited with some interest. We

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 16 - 11.

Place

Cebu.

were most struck by the movements of the Octopus and the manner in which they seize the food thrown into them by the attendant. We viewed the struggle of with one of these monsters in the "Jokers of the Sea". The captives' exhibiting the various forms of sea life, which this aquarium seems more especially to illustrate, were very instructive. From the museum we walked down up the hill to Parks, which we were glad to reach. Our trip was too much for us very soon. Jan 20th. I was fatigued & took out her dress to rest before dinner. After this, however, we feel much better.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 14, 1911.

Place

Naples.

w. p. on B's birthday. Left early a.m. & down at Cor's at 7:00 a.m. where by arrangement we were met by the guide recommended to us by Pedro Davidson (Eduardo Calce), electric train to Campos, leaving on the way the head of Lava from the last eruption of Reservoir.
 There was very little snow to be seen from the volcano and I could see clearly the change in the slope of the peak which has occurred since the outbreak first mentioned, and since my last visit to Naples in . Our guide was very good and made our visit to Campos very clear and instructive. We passed Espinosa.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 11, 1911.

Place

Naples, Italy.

an exact idea of the arrangement of a typical house of that period, from vicils to the home of the proprietor, Pansa; that of the basic part, Bovasso; that of Cassino, the house of the farming family; and that of the latter, a single room, which from the common place was seen in the house called that of the "amozini". Lunch at the station when four to Naples reaching Pansa's home 5:30 PM. In the evening letter-writing & posting.

Naples shows signs of the general improvement going on in the city. In a special way the tax-makers on the cars are some the travelers much annoyed.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 18-11.

Place

Lacomb to Rome & Rome.

A wonderfully beautiful day. We were up early enough to see the sun rise over the hills, and the view of the bay from our hotel window, looking toward Sorrento, over the water of deepest azure, was beyond description. We left Naples at 7 a.m., and arrived in Rome after 2. Lunch on the train, and from Naples we drove by the large number of water-carrying roads, and further south by the olive trees & the vineyards. The scenery was very beautiful all the way along. After dinner at the Regina, where we went after visiting a number of other hotels & a drive on the Pincian hills, we went Little Lord Lambton, his business.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 19, 11

Place

Rome

with the exception of a visit to the Post-office in the afternoon, in the hotel all day long. Jean was taken in shortly after going to bed last night and had all the symptoms of some kind of pleurisy coming. We think it must have been the same as she had yesterday, as a bit of my pain was distinctly there. In the evening she felt her neck the same better and able to take a little nourishment. Outside the day was very bright and sunny and Jean was upset at not being able to go about.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 20 - 11.

Place

Rome.

Patient, a little shaky this morning, but quite ready for breakfast and for going out. The weather a little threatening all day long and cold, but no rain fell, in the morning we started out about 10 o'clock with a "taxi" and drove as follows; from Corso Umberto Primo to Piazza di Venezia; then to Foro Traiano, and by the Via Alessandrina and Via Bacula to the Forum Romanum; past the Colosseum, and by Via San Pioanimo in Tevere to the Piazza of the obelisk; then by Via Manduca, passing Santa Maria
 Maggiore, Via Eustachio Despatis & Via Nazionale to Piazza Venezia; kept by Corso Vittorio Primo ^{annuale} to

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 20 - 11.

Place

Rome

Via di Torre Argentina, by the latter to the Ponte Fabricii; across Tiber bridge to Trastevere, past S. Maria in Trastevere, and by the Fontana to Piazza di S. Pietro; last across Tiber Ponte S. Angelo, by Corso Vitt. Emanuele, and Via Anacleti to the Piazza Anacleti at the foot of the Capitole then home.

In the afternoon we walked over the Palatine, taking Bowdler as our guide. We drove to the Via S. Teodoro where we entered, and "catted" it back from the Colosseum where our walk ended. The afternoon was warm and pleasant & neither of us was too tired.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 21 - '11.

Place

Borneo

Off at 7 o'clock after a good night's rest.
 Weather pleasant all day. Drove first to the Postern and from there crossed to S. St. Jofraa Juiswa. Then on by cab to Costello's S. Angelo, which we inspected.
 Then a good drive into St. Peter's and an hour ⁱⁿ with the "Picture Gallery", after luncheon at the Refectory, by cab to the banks of Caraccalla where one of the attendants explained things so clearly that we were able to form a good mental picture of the buildings as at first constructed; then onto the cab.
 Courts of S. Calixtus; thence to the Protestant Cemetery. Here we retained our cab and crossed over the Aqueduct, viewing pictures after dinner.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jz. 22 - 11.

Place

Rome

are browsing in the Vatican, — the Sarcophagi, the Stanza, and the Sistine Chapel, and the Loggia.
 Then home for luncheon at the hotel. In the afternoon a boat.
 We walk along the Janiculum with magnificent views of the city and the hills beyond. We were especially impressed by the sight from the Piazza in front of S. Pietro in Montorio, where we stood for quite a long time. From here we went along the Passarella Traughetta, past Fontana's splendid monument, and down the hill by Jovio's oak. Tea at Fontana's in the Piazza Venezia & then home.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 23 - '11.

Place

Rome

left early and away to the "Palatino" the eye department in which is the best on angle I have ever seen, then to the Museo delle Terme, which we first engaged. After luncheon (at Refua) we visited the Villa Borghese, and from there walked over to the band playing just above ^{the} Piazza Popolo. Then down to Via di San P. di Spasiano and afterwards buying photographs, post cards, and souvenirs in the Corso Umberto. Jean bought me a fine photograph of the tower in the Museo delle Terme, which I greatly admired. After dinner moving further afield in P. delle Terme.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jy. 24 - 11.

Place

Rome.

Another very fine sunny day, which we spent on the Capitoline, at the Cap. Museum, and in the palace of the Conservatori. Before leaving we went along to the Garden of the German Hospital & saw the Sarcophagi Port; and made a study of the remains in the Forum Romanum from the steps in the Via del Campidoglio.

In the afternoon (3 p.m.) we attended service in the Scotch Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Mr. Grant preaching a sermon on the evidence of St. Peter & Paul having lived & being suffered martyrdom in Rome, afterwards to ten St. Januaries in the Piazza Venezia, and then a walk to Via Veneto - Refugio.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 25, 11.

Place

Rome.

Over at the Colosseum Hotel at 9.30 to call on Judge & Mrs. Archibald of Umbria. Then on to St. Peter's and from there to S. Pietro in Vincoli to see the process of Michael Angelo, forming again the Colosseum and the arches on the way.

In the afternoon at the church of S. M. Maggiore to have the service in honor of ? St. Matthew? and to see the relics of the saints carried in procession thru the building.
It was raining slightly and dark when we came out, but we enjoyed the walk back to the hotel.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 26 - 11.

Place

Strain - Rome - France.

a snowy day. We left Rome at 9 o'clock and reached France at 2.30. This time we ate a luncheon made up for us by the people at the Refugio, who, I melted to. Soup, but a Christ-mas tree and a very special dinner for their guests last night.

We decided to stop at the New York hotel in France (Piazza Ponte alla Conca); and, as soon as we had put our things in our room, we left to take the train to Paris. We engaged the help of our boat (standing close by the way in front with the conductor) of the train from in front of Sant' Alessandria, the day was somewhat misty.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 24, '11.

Place

Genoa.

up early, the morning very cool.
 Raining severely all day. The tide out, we went first to the Piazza Signoria, inspecting the Loggia dei Lanzi, the Palazzo Vecchio, and the sculptures. At 100' down into the harbor where we spent the whole morning.
 After luncheon first to San Marco, then to the Palazzo Piccotti (Medici chapel), and then to San Lorenzo (Ghirlandi, and the new Socialists etc.) from there to the Baptistery, the Duomo, and to San Michele. After dinner to see morning pictures in the Via Cornelia.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 28-11.

Place

Genoa.

Beautiful day again. Up early. We walked first along the Lungarno to Santa Croce which, with the Pozzi chapel and the cloisters, we enjoyed more than anything else in Genoa, then on to the Barchese and from there back to lunch.

After refreshment to the Pitti
 Gallery and ⁱⁿ to the Boboli Gardens and from there to San Miniato with a splendid view of the city from the Piazza Michel Angelo. We arrived at the hotel just half one from this end of the fine of appointment.

The evening at home,
 I read Ben Hur.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 29 - '11.

Place

Florence.

Another nice day. First to see Museo ^{di} S. M. del Fiore to see the Sings' part found of Donatello & (also S. M. Novella) of Piazza della Robbia. Then to
 S. M. del Carmine and to S. Spirito, which however was closed for some time - time. Back over the Ponte Vecchio.

In the afternoon to the Accademia di Belle Arti where engaged Esposizioni the David & other works of Michael Angelo;
 the one just named at San Angelo;
 and the "Spring" of Botticelli.

Afterwards visiting the Borgo di Albizzi and looking at the old fresco & the old. Then side of Dante's birth place. Tea, & then shopping. After dinner coffee & reading papers.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 30 - 11.

Place

Train - Pisa.

We pushed out today in order to take with us in time for New Year's day. To spend a little time with her we have not had someone over visits in Italy.

We left Florence at 9 o'clock arriving in Pisa at 11.15, another very beautiful day. With Bardone as guide we went via Via Fibonaccini, Porta Solfarina, and via Solfarina to the Piazza del Duomo, visiting the Cathedral, the Baptistery, the Campo Santo, and inspecting the two occasions in Campo altogether a wonderful impression.
 Lunch at the station and off again at 3 o'clock. Change of cars at Genoa and Ventimiglia. Arrived Nice 1 a.m.

I had to write it
 at the station

I had to write it
 at the station

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 31 = Jan. 3rd 1912.

Place

Rice

Six nice, beautiful days which we have enjoyed to the full. Sunday morning we did not get up until time for luncheon for which we were quite ready. Afterward we went for a long walk up the hill to see "Chateau", down the other side, and home by way of the harbor and the Esplanade. ~~Sunday~~ ^{Monday} (New Year's Day) to service at the "Club", and in the afternoon a drive up to and thru Quincy. Saw at the hotel (Bate & O'Connor - Rooms 47) 5, after a good dinner with music, conversation with Admiral Brown (U.S.A.) and later dancing in the dining room which had been closed out. Tuesday, a splendid

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Dec. 31 - '11 = Jan. 5, 1912.

Place

Rice.

visit to Buenos and Santa Carlos, going and coming by Bahia Pan with magnificent views of the shore all the way along. On our return, tea at Pampelunagis, and after dinner Ban Pan real about by water. Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday excels at sea Cosine in the evenings, and Ban Pan excels in sea square in the afternoon with weeks in between. Sea at the London Pan house on Wednesday, in Baker's room on Thursday, and at Rafael's in sea Peter Masena on Friday.
 Three dances again will be on Thursday night after dinner. Friday after luncheon finished at Bahia.
 chefs in sea Juan Public "Marsala Plaza"

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 6 - 1912.

Place

On board train to Milan.

We left here this a. m. at 10.04, after coming down to the station to see us off. We were very sorry to leave, as we enjoyed our rail box and there any other place on our trip, and as the sky was clear there with glossy clouds, and the sea there in ^{quite} ~~long~~ a heavy surface all along the "Riviera di Ponente" of which we got beautiful glimpses between the tracks in the tunnels. We were unfortunate enough to miss a late connection for Milan and were forced to wait a couple of hours longer in Genoa, where it was quite dark when we arrived at 5.40. We quite enjoyed eating on the train the lunches of ham & chicken sandwiches that were left from the Bate O'Connell. Milan at 11 p. m. without special incident.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Sat. ~~Jan.~~ Feb. 1912.

Place

Milan

Out at 9.30. a beautiful sunny morning, after an inspection of the Cathedral, we walked thru the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele into the "Baera" where we spent the morning. Bought ^{for lunch} the book Europa — (Corso Vitt. Emanuele — and then via Piazza del Duomo & Piazza de Mercanti (where we looked at the medieval buildings) to the Biblioteca Ambrosiana and its picture gallery. afterwards on to another a great part of the Castello Sforzesco
 Co. with a look in at the Museo Parco. then, walking, we visited in succession Sant'Ambrogio della Spina (Lombard's last supper cell); Sant' Ambrogio with a glimpse of the tomb of the saint, and the tomb stone of Papi with its Latin

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 9, 1912

Place

Rome.

inscription; the little church was by whom St. Ambrose baptised St.
 Augustine in 388; the old Roman colonnade in the Corso S. P. Sincere; the church of S. Lorenzo; and the ospedale Maggiore, after going to and from the Public Gardens and then for a visit of a few minutes, we returned home to rest, and again at 6.30 for dinner at Scimia's in the Piazza Piet. Lemay, and after ^{wards} for coffee at Rache Fabrics in the same structure, having finished in the Corso Umberto; then to the hotel where I settled overnight; and then to bed 10.30 for early start to France in the morning.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 8 - 1912.

Place

on board the train to Sucre, Bolivia.

and creeping over the Rivera, this has been the first day we have had on a train. We were up at 6 o'clock sharp, and left Sucre at 7:50.
We saw the Sun "in a small mountain cloud" mount over the hills as we came to Thonga. On our way there we had magnificent views of the Alps;
of the clear, rapid Ticino, and ^{at} ~~over~~ Escalera; of the lakes Como, Lugano, Maffio, and Green, shimmering in the brilliant sunlight and deep blue under a cloudless sky. We had a 'fin. hic' dinner in our compartment after leaving the St. Pothard Tunnel & we are now settled in the "Federal" a tunnel, ^{at 7:50} traced on the river front. — We arrived in Sucre at 1:50 and, after leaving our animal friends, and

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 8-9 - 1912

Place

Lucerne.

Looking after things at the station - Customs - Jean went with me to see a fine herd of cows (Swiss) and horses belonging to the Schweizer-Hof at the tower. After dinner during lunch, - the first we have yet seen in Europe -

9¹². Very foggy and overcast and raining slightly. We went for a long walk thru the town visiting the markets, crossing the bridges, and looking into the shops. Somewhat closer about 12:30 noon, when we went up again to see the cows and to inspect a couple of typical Swiss farms. After a light tea, we left Lucerne at 4 o'clock and came into Frankfurt at 10:30 getting up at the Zähringer Hof -

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 10 - '12.

Place

Freiburg.

a dull, overcast day with some rain in the early part of the morning, clearing toward noon, and bright and pleasant as we watched the landscape on our way to Strasbourg. Jean left me at the Auger Clinic and went off to see the city by herself. Prof. Aruffelt met me very pleasantly, & introduced me to see his assistant whose work I expected for some time, an American, Mattie, a graduate of Johns Hopkins, showed me over the building - I saw then Prof. Aruffelt's lecture to his students. After said good-bye, I visited the Dom and Jean who met me at 12.45 & again after lunch when we walked to main time, - 3.31,

PLACES VISITED.

Date Jan. 11 - 1912.

Place Strasbourg Train to Paris.

Up early after a poor night at the "Vieille de Paris" on account of the noise, - the street cars and the street voices - a very dark, foggy, drizzly morning, - so misty that we could not see the tops of the spires of the cathedral, which we went to inspect after breakfast. The interior was interesting seen in the dim light from windows of iron candles of alabaster, - two services were being held, - one for school boys before a representation of the nativity and another for women on the left aisle. Off at 10.08.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Aug. 12 - 12 - 51

Place

Paris

Arrived here yesterday at 4.30 after a pleasant and uneventful trip. After seeing a few other hotels we decided upon the "Continental", Rue de Coligny, where we have a quiet, clean, modern room with nice bath.
 This evening was foggy, but we walked first the exterior of the Louvre in part and then went on to take a view of the Palais de Justice (Sainte Chappelle), then along the Rue de Rivoli to the gardens at the "Kardomath" (184), and afterwards Superfinery then the palace gallery of the Louvre for a general survey. We passed, however, a grand avenue tree in the Rue de Rivoli now. Along the Seine, across the Pont des Concorde, and back home by way of Pont Alexandre III.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 13:12.

Place

Paris.

Jean felt a little chills on coming in last night and her shoes were sore, so I sent her to bed after a hot bath and had dinner served in our room. This a.m. she felt tired and faint, she was better about 10.30 & able to go out. We went first to the Louvre to see the Venus of Milo and the head of Homer & then again with Jean pictures to 10'clock. After lunch at the "Kasbah" we visited the Hotel des Invalides & the tomb of Napoleon; the Place de la Boile (and); and the Madeleine. Home at dusk, Jean feeling better.

PLACES VISITED.

Date Jan. 14 - '12.

Place Paris, Versailles.

A nice, clear, somewhat crisp morning. We took the electric railway from the Gare des Invalides at P. 44, and enjoyed seeing the Eiffel Tower and bits of the Town on our way to Versailles. We inspected first the grounds of the chateau & then the grounds and ^{to} the little village of train Automobile. Then lunch in a restaurant near the allée de la Reine, afterwards thru the forest. In January we finished Frank's coming from the coast of Canada to report to Louis XIV. The evening spent in reading & writing.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan, 15 - '12.

Place

Paris.

Rather a slow day. First to the Hotel de Ville. From there to St. Jacques, and then to the Museum of Domestic Art in the Louvre where we spent the morning. We were very much interested in the Library connected with this department. After lunch (at the "Kasornah") went to visit the Bibliothèque Nationale. Stayed there till dusk. Then out to Cour's where I got a letter from Charles, and then home where the girls were awaiting us. Jean's card rather slow. de Jans (Eugénie).

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 16 - 12

Place

Paris

Baiglier, the: like somewhat now.
 we went over this morning to (underground R.R.)
 see see Pantheon, going into see Bibliothèque St. Genevieve and the church of St. Etienne - du - mont.
 afterwards. Lunch in see Rue Sublet, and take to see Cluny museum.
 where we attempted to look up all the churches in a thorough manner. we finished up the aft.
 town in see Luxembourg, France.
 and see Sculptures rather than see pictures. the we recognized some of the were known and among see latter. Good view of the Sorbonne on our way to see Pantheon.
 Back by omnibus to the Pl. Theatre Francaise then a walk home thru see av. de St. L'Opera, Boue. des Capucines.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 14, '12.

Place

Paris.

Raining and raw. By underground to the Louvre where we visited the Musée de Sculpture Comparée, enjoying especially the work of Jean Poyon and Robert Lemaire. Then to "Kasnah" for luncheon, and afterwards to the Louvre where we spent the afternoon among the pictures. On our way home, for longer some "white" was in the Grande Rivoli. After dinner we went to see moving pictures (Pathé) in the Cirque d'Été.
 Home time at 11:30.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 18 - 1912.

Place

Paris - Train - Canterbury.

left and forking - left Paris at 120'
 close - looking across on the way through Calais: the sea channel was rather rough and I feel a bit queasy toward the end of the crossing. Jan was over at sea of sea - the weather was foggy, and the wind quite bad.
 We reached Canterbury in time for a good dinner of soup, chops, and deep apple-pie.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 19 - '12.

Place

Caulier Bay - Wye - London.

left in good time. Some mist, but not unpleasant. We first visited St. John Cathedral, inspecting the interior before and the interior of the Episcopate after the service, which began at 10 o'clock and for which we stayed. afterwards for a glimpse to St. Martin's. on our way to London, we stopped over a couple of hours at Wye and drove out to see the four churches with the Quadrant School. We reached London and drove straight to Bedford Place where we decided to stay while in London.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 20 - '11.

Place

London

first to London to get tickets for the theater. Very foggy - then down to Victoria station to see about our trunks, and afterwards to Orchard
 St. to meet Louie at the "Sign".
 Lunch with Louie, Anderson, Tom at Selfridges, and then through the Parliament buildings with them. We moved into Westminster Abbey, where service was going on,
 and then walked through the cloisters.
 We left the others and walked along the Embankment as far as the Temple where we took a bus to the Bank & another bus there home. The "Blue Bird" is the evening, at the Queen's Shaftesbury Ave.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 21 - '12.

Place

London

Very foggy and damp. Jump to a service in celebration at 10 at 10 o'clock; but it was too cool and damp, so we came away before the service was then.
 We walked along Victoria St to Buckingham Palace, from there to Hyde Park Corner, and thence by Piccadilly and Regent St to Oxford St. Bus home. In the afternoon a short time in the British Museum, which was closed ^{early} on account of the dark ness. Reading before and after dinner.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 22 - 12.

Place

London

Very foggy, but no rain and not too cold. From Guild were taken to R. Aphelwicz hospital to see Dr. Caserio who showed me X-rays of some operation for Yaws after tea and then looked over the building.
 From City Road we went to Liverpool St (seeing at British Consulate Wesley's Chapel on our way) where we took a 'Bus to the "Bank". Met. Missie Vanderson by appointment at the Bank of England 47, Threadneedle St where we see gold funds. Went for a few minutes to see our Bosses' Office in Threadneedle St., and afterwards we were all in the Royal Exchange to see the mural paintings. Then on to St. Paul's where we spent half an hour looking at the interior

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 22. 12.

Place

London

and the monuments, a few minutes at Cook's in Ludgate Circus and then lunch near Trafalgar Sq, Piccadilly and Jean paid an afternoon to the National Gallery, where Anderson and I went off to the Con. Soc.
 offices in Victoria St. afterwards
 we met in the National and at closing time went to Brooklyn in the west end where Jean bought an opera dress, then back by 'bus to dinner, and afterwards
 Jean and I and the General went to see Julia Wilson in "Sweet Pea" at the New Theatre.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 23-12.

Place

London

Very foggy and rainy. Jean and I shopping as usual. - she at Harsham & Sons; and I at Scott's, Athemarle St. afterwards we are out at Seiffert's for lunch, and later Jean and I and Anderson went to see the Wallace Collection, while ^{Peepie} went out. Louis at the Museum in Orchard St. Then home to dress and down to the Savoy where we dined with Nida and Bazel Clarke. Going on with them afterwards to see Kaulring in the "Passage from Paris" at the Paris Opera also Theatre - home at 11.20 p.m.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 24-12.

Place

London

Off this morning to see R. G. Hop. to see Mr. Lawford, which from went with the others to see the pictures again at the Wallace Gallery. We are out in luncheon at Whiteley's large store at the Queen's Road. Afterwards I had some apples and the sugar for the fruit department, and then we walked the Kensington Park to the Albert Memorial. Home by Bus from 10 o'clock and Waring's & Sons on the way.
 In the evening at "Bunty's" Puck's the things at the Kaymarket,

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 25 - 1912.

Place

London.

In the morning, down to the market & walk in cheap side with three or four to look at silverware. &c. &c. Bought up a dozen small silver fish knives and forks of very beautiful design. Then we had luncheon in the same street, and afterwards went to the "Tower," which was inspected 'til dusk. On coming out we took a bus to Liverpool Street where we changed and came by way of Oxford St., Bond St. to Whitehall St. where I had a fitting at Scott's. Then via & home by Taxi. In the evening dinner with the Caedins (14. Queen Anne St.) Jan. 26th afterwards to the St. George's Race with Mrs. C. (Empson Place) & to the Anthropological Soc. in the evening.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 26 - 1912.

Place

London

This Sunday day. In the morning
 Jean, Miss General, Anderson & I went to the Kensington Palace & afterwards to the South K. Museum; during the remainder of the morning in the British History Section, and the afternoon in the fine arts department. We saw the Gipsies as they came to see our furniture. From there we went to Jaafar Sp. for travels, Jean & I stopping to see about the sailing of the Baltic on the way over, & then I calling at the Great. Parker travel to see about apples afterwards. In the evening
 Jean & I at "Kismet" at the Pavilion.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 27, 12.

Place

London.

This fine day, getting first at Scott's in Abchurch Lane St. Then buying some of his at Ireland; and that's at North's on Piccadilly - afterwards down at the Army & Navy Store in Victoria St.
 where Jean bought a nice rain coat. We had lunch there, and later went on to see Lake Palace where we spent the time till closing with the others - Jean, Anderson, Louis. This evening to whom we said good-bye. In the evening Jean, Lou, Anderson & I attended the performance of Dick Whittington in the Lyceum.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 28, '12.

Place

London.

a fine, cool day; sunny with a certain amount of mist. Basil came called for us at eleven o'clock in his automobile (all 3, Bedford Place) and took us via New, Richmond (thru the Park) and Winkleson Common to his father's home in Winkleson, where we saw Mr & Mrs. C.; the three Pals; and Joan (Richard's little girl, he being away in Switzerland); Before dinner (Roast Beef and Yorkshire pudding and deep plum pie) B. took me over a part of the five Pals Lewis her "at hand"; and

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 28 - '12

Place

Winterson.

afterward after and B., as Mrs.
 Clark's suggestion, took us over to Hampton Court, where we had a hurried but pleasant visit ⁱⁿ to see the beautiful palace.
 Then as dusk came on we were driven back to Winterson where we had tea. B. was going down to the station with us afterward to see us off. We met Nellie and Anderson by chance at Earl's Court, coming from seeing Louie at her school in St. Paul's Park.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 29, '11.

Place

London.

First with Anderson & Hattie to Corcoran's office in Oxford St. to see about their trip to Paris and St. Paul.
 Then we went again to see Army & Navy Stores where Anderson bought himself a water-proof overcoat, and I saw the manager of the Civil Department in regard to buying apples from the farm.
 Then Jean & I had lunch with Miss Butler of Kameleton at Selfridge; & afterwards went to Madame Jacobson's & ^{to} Stephen Porters for tea. In the evening Jean & I saw Odifus Rex at Corcoran's Porter with Martin Honey as Odifus.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 30. 11.

Place

London.

Jean and I spent the morning in the National Portrait Gallery. Lunch at Bedford Place, and in the afternoon in the British Museum under closing time, looking especially at prints and English china. Later we went to Weiss's (Coxford St.), where I ordered some instruments to be sent out to the Royal Victoria Hospital to myself; and to Davis (Same Street) where I paid for some caps & saucers - specialties of my grand-uncle's set - ordered by mother, two in price. In the evening we dined quietly with the Lawford 99 Harley St.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Jan. 21 - '12.

Place

London

Morning all morning. Free & Anderson went off to spend a week with Pat. (as Wyke. than Kael) as Lee-on-Solent,
 In the afternoon Jean went to his wife an old friend Mrs. Anney and I went to say good-byes to Lou as Latham Porter.
 In the evening we dined with Herbert Clave & his wife (and Protst. of New York) in Norton St. Kensington. Afterwards to the Empire, Leicester Sq. to see the vanaville and the ballet
 "New York".

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Feb. 1, '12.

Place

Irairi - Guayaquil - Baetic.

up at 9 o'clock. Breakfast at 8:10 after finishing packing a four-wheel truck up to Boston Station where we boarded the special train for San José at 9:30.
 We are now (4:22) comfortably settled on the white Star S.S.
 Baetic (Room 31) steaming out to sea, — pointed for Pecos and New York. A nice letter from Arthur was awaiting us on the boat; and I sent letters to her (as did you) and to Lucia.

PLACES VISITED.

Date

January 1st = 10th, 1912.

Place

S.S. Baetic.

looking forward to chronicle. I was ice for four days with sure determination, the Jean was perfectly well throughout the whole voyage, which she thoroughly enjoyed -

The weather was bright; the very cool on arrival in New York, and the Baetic was slow in docking, owing to the large amount of ice in the harbor and the vessel was to scrape,

We came ashore and took, and, after passing the customs, went to Brennan's book store to see some works on old China, and thence to the U.S.C. station (42nd St.) where

PLACES VISITED.

Date

February 10th 1912

Place

New York.

we secured our tickets and books to purchase and had lunch, then on to Jt. Courtyard for a few minutes and from there to the Metropolitan Art. Museum where we spent the rest of the afternoon. We particularly enjoyed the wonderful display collection of Chinese porcelain.

We had dinner on board the train, shortly after leaving New York, and, very tired, went early to bed. Owing to the recent severe snow-storms the train was several hours late on arriving at Montreal: but the weather though by kind was clear, and "sunny overhead" - fine's.

Grand Hôtel New-York

G. FAINI, Propriétaire

FLORENCE - Lung'Arno Corsini

Ascenseur et Lumière Électrique - Chauffage central dans toute la maison Jardin d'hiver - Salles de bains

27/3

Mr & Mrs Byers

1911

Dec 26

Quinibus bagage	L 2	-
Arrangement (D)	28	-
1 P ^{1/2} Noceva	1	-
Factage bagage gar	1	L 32
		<hr/>

27.

Arrangement	L 28	-
1 pôt marmellade	2	50
2 teas sels appant	2	50
1 P ^{1/2} Noceva	1	-
Ammbres	1	30
		<hr/> 35.30

PLACES VISITED.

28 Arrangement
1 B^{ke} Nocera
Ambras

£ 28 - 1 60 29 60

29 Arrangement
Ambras

£ 28 - 180
180 29 80

30 Ambras et bagage

£ 350
350 350

£ 130 20

1 Nocera

£ 1 131 20

Annulato

15 1/2 20 50
13 1/2 20 10
13 1/2 20 10

67

PLACES VISITED.

10 1st 2nd 1812

anis 9.
to 32

his. Jan. 4. 55

PLACES VISITED.

Date

February 10th 1912

1. ...
 2. ...
 3. ...
 4. ...
 5. ...
 6. ...
 7. ...
 8. ...
 9. ...
 10. ...

1. ...
 2. ...
 3. ...
 4. ...
 5. ...
 6. ...
 7. ...
 8. ...
 9. ...
 10. ...

1. ...
 2. ...
 3. ...
 4. ...
 5. ...
 6. ...
 7. ...
 8. ...
 9. ...
 10. ...

1. ...
 2. ...
 3. ...
 4. ...
 5. ...
 6. ...
 7. ...
 8. ...
 9. ...
 10. ...

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

71

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

73

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

75

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

77

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

79

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date	Date
------	------

Place	Place
-------	-------

81

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

83

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

85

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

87

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

89

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

93

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

95

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

97

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

99

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

101

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

103

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

105

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

107

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

109

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

113

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Place

115

PLACES VISITED.

Date

Date

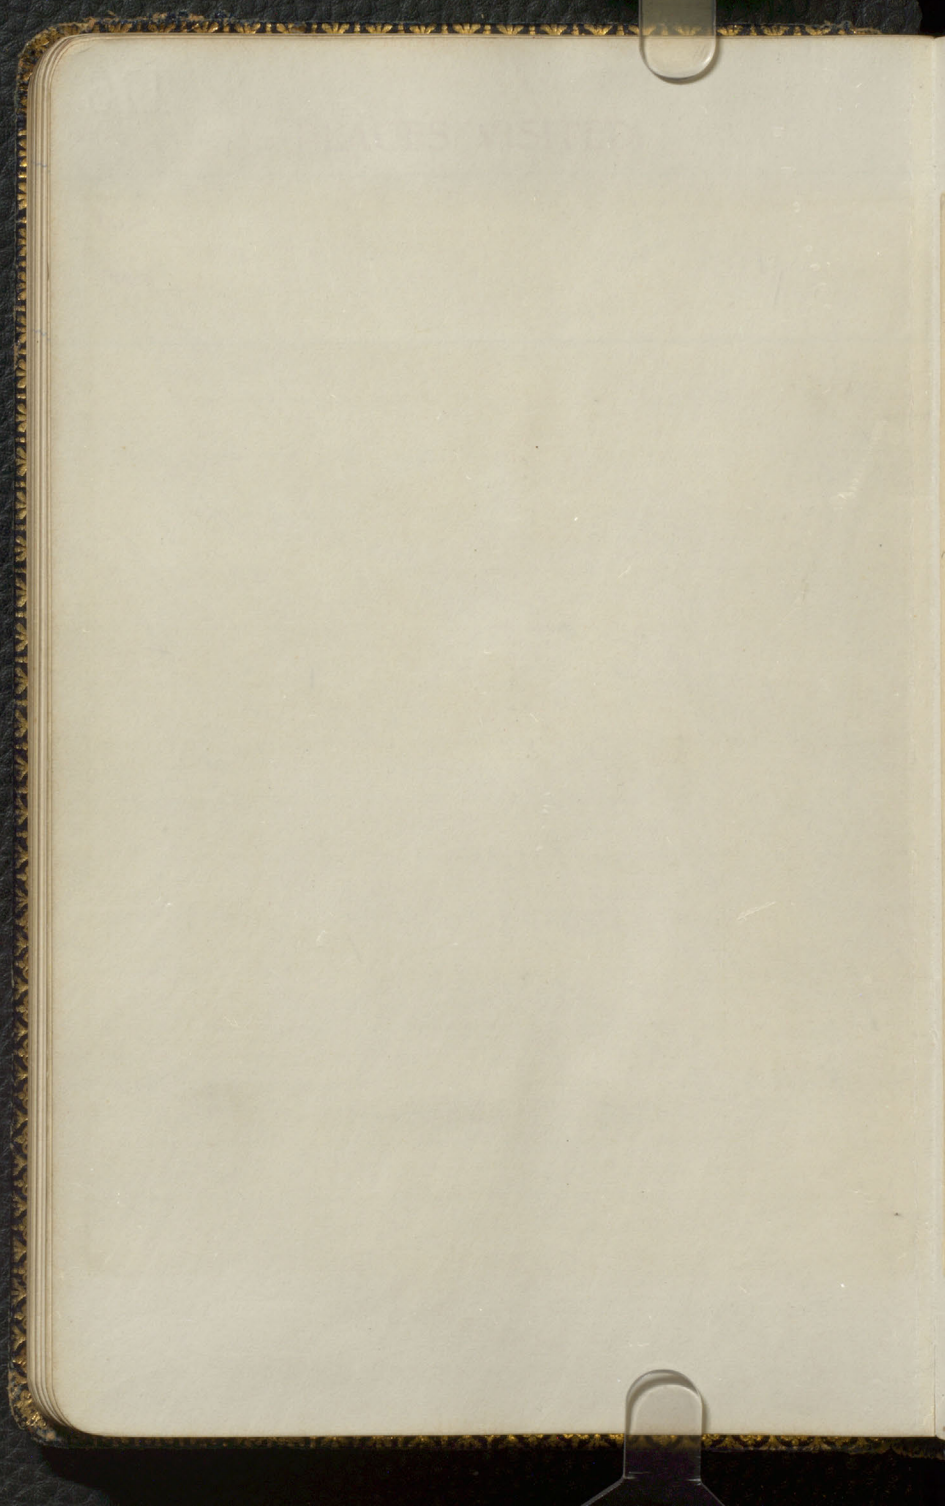

Place

Place

PLACES VISITED.

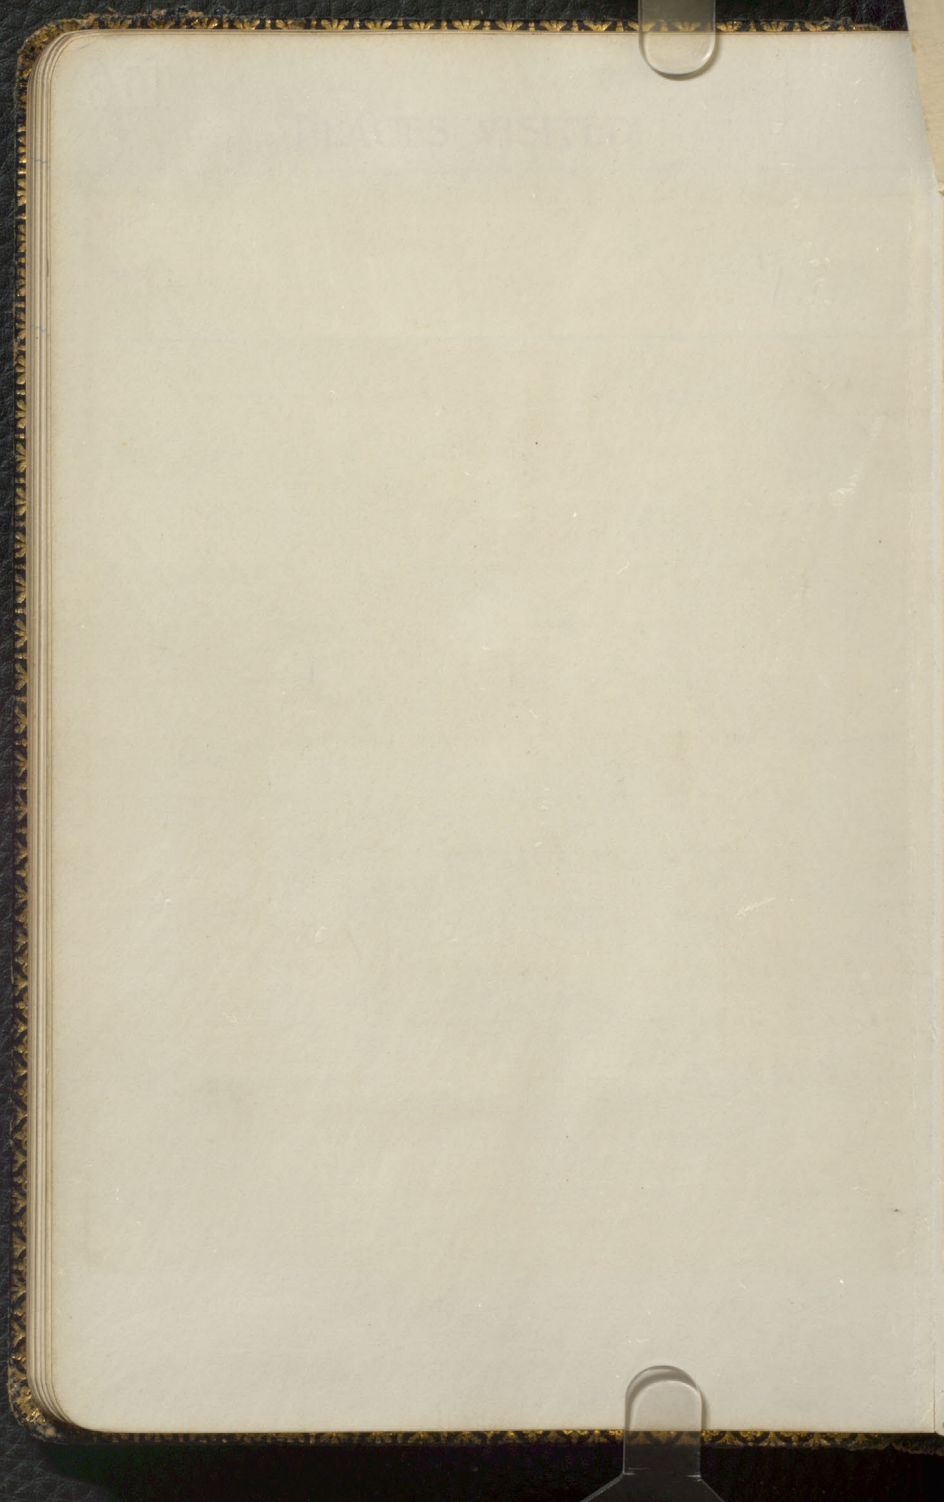

Date

Place

R.M.S. "ADRIATIC"

R. M. S. "ADRIATIC."

DECEMBER 7, 1911

MENU

GRAPEFRUIT - VIN DE PASTO

HORS D'ŒUVRES

OYSTERS

CELERY

CONSOMMÉ HENRY IV

VELOUTÉ DE VOLAILLE AUX POMMES D'AMOUR

SOLE À LA MEUNIÈRE

SWEETBREADS, TOULOUSAINÉ QUAIL EN CASSEROLE

QUARTERS OF WELSH LAMB PRIME SIRLOIN OF BEEF

YOUNG TURKEY WITH BAKED YORK HAM

GREEN PEAS

CAULIFLOWER

RICE

BOILED & ALEXANDRA POTATOES

ROAST PHEASANT

SALAD

ICED PUDDING À LA PARISIENNE

PINEAPPLE ROYALE

BAVAROIS AU CARAMEL

PETITS FOURS

STRAWBERRY ICE CREAM

DESSERT

