Dearest Edward

Just a line to tell you something most exciting, I'm going to be a "School man" after all, what do you think of that?

On Tuesday Miss Phillips telephoned to me and asked me to go to tea to meet Miss Edgar (a Haverhill teacher who is beginning a new school here - ) with a view to getting a <sup>desirable</sup> teaching position.
So I went to see her & was so scared, they sat me in the light & then both looked at me & look me in from top to toe, while I was looking at one of them, I could see the other one squinting at me out of the corner of her eye.

After a little talk, and a recommendation from Miss Munty she decided to take me, without even seeing any of my drawings —

The work will not be very strenuous it only means about 2 mornings a week (4 or 5 hrs a week)

$1.25<sup>3</sup> an hour that is nearly $25 a month - so it's not so bad for little Lorie - of course it means that I have to stay in town all winter from Sept 15 to June 15 -

I have great hopes of going to England <sup>this summer</sup> ~~now~~ or when, or who will.
I don't know, but I just feel as if I were going -

I went for a lovely walk this morning all by my lonesome. It was such a lovely day I could not resist

All the trees <sup>4.</sup> were covered with ice + a bright sun shining through them, while gorgeous clouds simply fled across the sky - I went and tried to find our policeman but there was not a sign of a person it was lovely, I just opened my lungs & just bellowed —

Well I hope you approve of my becoming a school teacher, I hope the kids don't treat me as badly as I used to treat some of my teachers, well adieu! "entire pile" very much love as usual to you from Lois //
