

Mon. 15th Nov. 1909

My dear Lois

I have just time for a line - from the public writing-table here at the Queen's.

I go out in the morning for Wiarton
at 8.30 AM.

They didn't lose much time in starting me, did they?

I've been on the jump all day.
(Bee Spruzge)

My cousin was trying to persuade me to go to a dance and so I was tearing about to get a boarding house so that I could unpack my things, get a dress-suit pressed and do things in general.

But I couldn't manage it.

Just now as a last resort I telephoned Bill Carey at the Fraternity House, and

arranged for a room for myself to which I have just sent my things.

I hope they arrive because I probably shall not have the opportunity of seeing them for 4 or 5 days.

If you write, it will be best for the present, at least, for you to address me c/o Can. Rand Co., Ltd., Traders' Bank Bldg. Toronto, Ont. Canada etc.

It will then be forwarded to my next stop.

So don't be worried if you lose me for a few days - the letter will eventually catch me.

I had a good trip down and came at once to the Queen's.

This luxury will not last - next trip it will be the Iroquois or some other second-class hotel.

All sorts of Love

Yours affectly. E. Stinson
