Sunday Oct. 26 / 11 -

My Dearest Darling.

I meant to write to you last night - but I suddenly got a beastly nose bleed. for no reason what-ever, so I had to keep quite still after I got it stopped to keep it from starting again - It gave me quite a scare - I'm glad I don't have them often - Mother said that she used to have dreadful ones when she was young, up till the time she had<sup>2</sup> typhoid fever since then she has never had another. Why I am telling you all this, I don't know! It must be most interesting.

I have not got the measles yet, and sincerely hope that they have passed me by -

I am longing to go and see that mine you told me of, it sounds so thrilling and exciting, I don't wonder that you were fascinated by it — Will you take me there some day Eddie?

Franceska on Thursday

was a great success, she looked very charming, as well as your mother and Naomi. Helped to "ship the victuals".....

Yesterday was perfect, all nice and nelly, and slushy, and such a blue sky, and sunlight galore. We went up on the mountain in the afternoon, and there were such swarms of people, driving, walking, skipping, I think that at least half of them had not have been there. 4.

I'm just trying to think how long it is since I have written, I'm afraid it is quite a few days.

Did I tell you about our charming little supper party last Sunday? — we had.

Evans
Maggie
myself

Mr Evans
Mr Boyed
Mrs Duguid
Will & Owen.

I was chaperon & presided at the head of the table.

Mr Duguid I think you know. he always makes you feel as if you were most horribly witty, he simply goes into peals of laughter at every thing you say - then Mrs Evans is absolutely absurd, and I'm afraid the combination of Evans and Duguid did not help to make a very Sunday day. We, (~~both together~~) nearly bought the house down we made such a run

I went to see the Earl Grey Skating Competition it was wonderful, the gracefulness of some of the men & girls skating was perfect - It must fill you with wonderful sensations to skate as well as they do -

Now dear Edward, how I hate filling my letters up telling you of parties, and other stuff, which can't interest you very terribly. but I have read nothing lately or <sup>have not</sup> done anything particular So I'm afraid you will have to put up with that.

When are you going to get a week end of it.

re their engagement.

I am just longing to have you all to myself for a little time.
I think part of our last holiday was a sort of nightmare to me. Having to tell everybody & trying to be so proper & not show too much feeling etc. I was just knifed to death, and if it had not been for you I should have passed away all together I think.

Gossip! I think Conie Sutherland, is falling in love - with a very nice & clever man. but

8.
don't say a word. hasn't she a lot of fun to look forward to Angel?

Come back to me soon my Dearest Edward, and in the meantime be good to yourself — — —

and with piles of love to you —

ever yours
