My dearest Lois

I am busy as the Dickens and the nicest things I see are your letters. I am glad you have arranged about the house here and I only hope we can do something with the Montreal one.

Be sure to keep an advertisement in the "Star" and rent it for what you can get for it. I would be glad to get anything at all for it unfurnished and anything over $35⁰⁰ furnished. We've got to have something to buy coal with.

I can't make up my mind whether or not to go home this week end. I'd like to see you and pack up some things but I have lots of work here and not too much money to spend. However we'll see what tomorrow brings.

Yours affectly
Edward
