My dearest Edward

It was rather upsetting for you to have me so upset, when you left. I am sorry, but I just did not seem to be able to control myself. It is absolute anguish for me to let you go, & it all seems silly to you. I suppose for anybody to make such a mess. I cannot bear having you away from me. I never get accustomed to it, it seems harder for me each time. It was all I could do to keep the memory after you, & trying is doubtless real for it was. I feel quite shamed still at the degree it was arrived -

Good night my dear good husband - It is because you are so happy nice happy, that I cannot be as the others - you - the I have heard no more from the mother about Alice - Anne says the garden is N.S. That is if it is the same as the garden to St Anne's the school - which is constant - I do wish that you had

You come home to our fire side again - I am utterly miserable still - I am going to bed now as I am very tired & will probably feel better in the morning -

You should have a very good trip without worry, knowing that your business has prospered this year. I do hope that it will do you a world of good. & that you will enjoy it.
I must try & get rested myself, as there

Consulted with Dr Hoffatt before y left - It is very hard for a woman to manage these things, my poor little Alice, I can't bear to have her suffer:

I must go to bed dear my love to my far off darling -

God keep you safely

Lois -
