

L.W.S. Driving new car.

416 Roslyn Ave.

Dearest Edward

I have had a terrific day of strain! Shaw arrived this A.M. at 9 o'clock with the car we started off up the Westmont Mountain. I found ^{it} ^{the driving} very difficult to catch on but Shaw said I did quite well. I did not feel so nervous at the time, but was just shaking from head to foot when I got in ^{the} house cleaning ^{got out} when I got back & John is bed with a temperature & Miss B off to the country for the day. I telephoned & got Dr. Hoffatt to promise to come out in the afternoon. The children have all had colds, the weather has been so cold, and John has had this troublesome cold that goes & the comes back. After lunch I took Ann out to see the new car, & I thought I would try & start it which I managed quite nicely, but I was rather alarmed to shoot forward quicker than I expected the car seems so big in the garage after the Ford, that I felt as the car leapt that I was taking the whole garage with me. I was so nervous that I did not dare try the reverse to put it back in the garage so I took off the hand break and pushed the car in - but don't give me away will you? At 11 A.M. about 3.30 in the midst of a rabble of children. He scolded John & gave me directions for him, said he had slight Bronchitis to keep him away from school & out in the air for a week. He looked over Baby and advised me about her. and he looked over the Cook and relieved my mind about her. He also
