Dearest Edward.

The days go on & still no word of your return. I just can't bear it much longer. it nearly ^{my} writes -

There is very little news to the days all seem much same to me - I had tea with Mrs D'ath yesterday met Mrs Brace & a Mrs G' Brier. I think her husband is manager of the Northern electric - They have come here from Winnipeg -

NOV. 15, 1923

Last night I had dinner with Heber & Pat - We had black duck which was very good -

I am going to try & go to the dance tomorrow night I can't say I am looking forward to it I had comto a hang up with me

The children are well - Alice gives Ann School every morning, which she seems to enjoy -

The weather is lovely still -

I do not know where to address this to but will send it to Van Couver as you seem The document is spread the winter there -

My pen is mended again by the children + all my paper mended - I suppose I shall get mended + go out - Good bye for now darling your loving wife
