Westmount.

My dear Edward

I received today a letter from the Dead letter office in Vancouver, one which I had sent you some time ago & had forgotten to put c/o of Ingersoll Rand Co. I am sorry that you did not get it -

I had a wire note for you today saying that you had left for the north on the 17th and Ken tells me that you do not expect to be back in Vancouver till June the 9th which seems far off -

The weather persists in being dark & gloomy, which does not make you feel much like doing anything. I took Baby for a walk this morning as far as the little park at the end of the Westmount Boulevard. She was delighted with the little pond of water there with the little fountain. She is saying quite a lot of new words and is rather a sweet wee thing.

John has been rather miserable with a cold, so I took him out for a little while this afternoon.
He has been sleeping in your room, which he likes.

My singing is my one amusement. I had a lesson today, Mrs Sims seems to think I am getting on quite well, I am beginning to be able to put into practice everything that she has taught me.

he. Music means more to me than I ever realized before good music I should say. it carries you away from this Sordid life to somewhere, that seems clean & happy -

I had a post card from Gordon & Olive from London, evidently they are on a trip, I had no idea that they were going - They seem to have had their plans rather wrecked by the strike -

Bob~~A~~ is overjoyed by the prospect of having his wife back with a ready made son —

I think I told you that you had been elected at Dixie —

The children have their sports day on Friday, I think John + Ann are taking part in it — Then they have their dancing closing on Saturday, which Alice has to have two costumes a gypsy + a yellow crepe de chine - which I have been making tonight - I feel sorry that you see to miss every thing in connection with the children. it must be disappointing to you too as it gives one quite a good idea of their characters & their progress -

I hope that God is blessing you my Edward & giving you peace & happiness with love from
Lois.
