

June 11th / 26.
Friday.

Dearest Edward.

We are about to leave for Como. The day is cool, but we hope it
will clear & get warmer.

Your Father is coming
out to put a little
paint on the canoe.

I wish I had had
one single word from
you before leaving —

Miss Walzer (Walster)
sent me the 100^{~~$~~}.00
yesterday, which was gratefully received, I was nearly stuck - but will have plenty now to take me through - - .

I wonder if you ever
think of me - I suppose you hate the thought of coming back ~~back~~, well take your time - we are all quite well.

I enclose a few moments for you.
Must run now.

Lois.
