

my mother apparently asked my father to return his letters from her so that they could all be kept together.

Little did she know that one day she would do a biography of him titled "The Link" and I would use them to publish a book about their lives in the year 2000.

The enclosed note I found with the letters - It is written in my father's handwriting & signed E. S. W (E. Sprague Win¹⁰) which was originally his name before it was changed in the 1930's is E. Winslow Spragge.

this was done at the request in an Uncle Henry Spragge's will, who wanted his name carried on, and he had no
heirs.
