My dearest-Child,

I was glad to get your first-letter & to feel that I was in touch with you once more, also I have from both Aunts who understand you most kindly & I have no doubt ^{you have} heard from them & been able to make suitable arrangements. You will ^{have} get-letters & find the money at the Bank of Montreal.
I am also glad to have Aunt-Glad's address. as I will send this there to you. - The German Baron you mention Co. met-at Caledonia Springs. I was rather startled at your account of those men taking the liberty of speaking to you without introduction. It was most unwarrantable on their part as on the Continent - rules are so very strict & it is an insult to speak to any girl without most definite introduction you certainly made a mistake in being friendly. ~~but~~ they may no doubt. Think Canadians don't know better, but do be cautious - things are very different - on the other side of a young & pretty girl cannot be too careful. It is the men who associate with too free women who are apt to take advantage - A really nice man takes nothing for granted but rules his conduct by the social regulations.

And what a lot must have happened since you watched the french pilot climb on board. You did not say one word about your party, or how you got on with them, if they were kind & helpful - or sick or well. Perhaps you just took them for granted.

Eva & I had a beautiful week at Glen Sutton just spring in its loveliest dress & Eva had not seen mountains before - so she has had her little experience.

Now Ted & Ruth are to arrive Monday - Claire & G. H. on Thursday - as usual

The D. C. R. are undecided² about trains - so I cannot yet decide when G. M. will go down to Metis - I have been writing lists for Mrs Bangman & seeing to all kinds of business - Happily I have secured a maid for Mother who seems promising =

Try to be a comfort to poor aunt Flo - she is very lonely & sad & of course her own people are very full of their own affairs - She at wishes to pay your passage but I told her that G. M. had done that & don't let her give it to you, even if she wishes to. If she likes to do little things for you she will enjoy that. Aunt Eva does not seem to think of being at Isall - till Sept. so you probably won't see that - but when at L. you'll be sure you see Chester, only $\frac{1}{2}$ an hour by train. Go in Saturday & come by evening - It has all the stages, Roubaix, Saxon etc. & a wheel all round - you can walk on the top - if ever be careful about spending money without just cause but don't hesitate to spend what we allow you to en-more - for while you are there it wd be foolish to save on that, this is your chance. I am writing to Mrs Scott. (Mrs Craun's sister) & if it could be managed I wd like you to see the Verels.

I am wondering if you found Miss Barrett in London - & if Mr Taylor wrote to you & a hundred other things - but in time we will hear all. & I trust the experiences of Lais will be very happy. & very illumina-ating - & my darling don't forget - to "watch & pray" both are needful. God has made this great pleasure possible, & try & see the best way & take all the profit you can out of it.

Muriel F. is going to Boston Friday, to spend a week with a friend, & you may be sure you will not be forgotten -

It is lovely to think what³ a nice time they will have the friend has a motor car so she will see all the lovely country about the City. We little people of America are how life will be improving.

You keep an open eye to see what is really far the happiness of the homes what is better, & what worse than your own - I always look both above & below the mere money measurer.

Try to see how the common people live in country & town - The rich smell the same the same everywhere.

Boys Club The Club has just been fitted with a fine parallel bar - & I sent down some of the Pastors to deck the wall the red heron as one - I do not contribute any of the gay ladies.

Mrs Colby has a little daughter, since she is rich, son & a daughter

Much love dear one from Mother
