

I cannot find the way 13th/09 is not in your desk or book shelf I have packed upstairs again & I will Dearest Will, I am now mother in Montreal -
Will in Herts - Bernard in Decontant getting together your clothing as to trousers do you think the old blue ones that are hanging on your door w^d do as a pattern, or were they too tight or too short?

Tell me this at once -

The other things all seem reasonable & I will get them, also a couple more ties, & your new suit-wh.
I w^d like you to keep till the vicars begin to come indeed for Sundays, so that it will be good for Baltard Haw is the best suit you took with you, is it still pretty good?

As to Mr. F. let me tell me he thought of going down on the 12th at that w^d be a week from to-mor-

of course it was Lois who evidently must be in the Captain's good graces to make him great-great so sandy - Do you see what strikes & endrries they seem to be having in Paris, I hope they won't get stirred up too much before Lais' arrives Eva & I are going out to the Stirlings on Saturday till Monday - I have not been well lately & there have been a continuous stream of difficulties which all had to be tackled - but the way out, always comes clear as one goes on - But I just must have a little rest or I can't go on - E. J. I may go to Glen Sutton for a week - $5.00 a week for board & said to be a pretty country Mrs Molloy's middle lot is full of flowers - adder's tongue honest-hyacinths & trilliums in full bud - I never know before she has specimens of these exquisite decumbens (dutchman's ~~trillium~~ breeches)

B. G. is at Chicoutimi again wonder-doesn't to take the place of a man who dies suddenly - It may be a great chance for him

I hope so, for he has worked hard without complaint & has not that comfortable sense of ability that Cori has.

I feel you are very fortunate to get onto such a good farm as
Mrs Carr - Harris

Somerset - Vale

Bathurst - N. B.

It is quite near the Bay de Chaleur - & you will find it warm there it is very sheltered & away from the cold St-Lawrence waters - Do you can find it in your geography map of New Brunswick.

You had much better buy a pair of working hats at Maria's for $2.00
The $2.00 there enough left of the $5.00 I sent for Turkey for casual expenses - if not - I will lend you
