Dearest Will

Your letter gladly received - & the marked improvement in the hand-writing a great pleasure - also Mrs Turkey refers well of you - you are right, character is the great thing - & to Do justly, love mercy, & to walk humbly with your God. is a fine summing up of character, by an old prophet

I enclose 50 of stamps, & $1.25 - being available change also send a bunch of keys which I hope are the ones you refer to - & that you may get the trunk key - If I do tie it to the trunk -

Today after many grey days, the sun is breaking out, & the air is quite warm -

What road you saw with Mr Brill?

I wd like to take a paddle in the p.m. today & see how the hare shade looks - with only the spring salvage left - the sky wd be the great & splendid thing if you want to earn money for St. ma do me some sky sketches they only need a few clean colours & a lot of water, also your biggest brush. 5/- a piece & you can give them to me later as a present to keep.

Is the bush mark on now? I wd like to think of you whacking away - you enjoy it so.

Alas for the checker his feast - I did want to hear all about it - so wd have made a good article for a magazine.
It was nonsense about

your purse - you knew I wanted you to go & I quite expected you to pay Mrs Tuckey <sup>100</sup> & had advanced it - however no doubt you did as you thought - best at the time - & that is as men can do -

Much love

Mother

Dear Mr Tuckey
