

Mother at home

Wednesday

Will put in N.B. with Mrs Harris

Dearest Will -

Lucy is to be here tomorrow, so I went up to tell Mr Tuckey to meet her, & saw good Mrs Tuckey. What a nice little sitting room she has there, & how pleasant she is - I hope you write to her once in a while just to show that you are grateful - She spoke so nicely of you, but wished that you were more tidy - of course I felt for her there, because though it may seem a small matter - it makes much trouble for the house-keeper - Try & have your room tidy as Mrs Harris says as if a persons mind must be clear & well ordered - when their dress & room is neat & tidy -

Such glorious weather the moon was shining into my bed room last night & today a calm sea & a shining sun, with the crisp air make life good.

Do you see the Bay de Chaleurs from the Falls

I had a dip today at a bad tide & G. M.'s boat track is a stony stumbly path but the water is warm even Clare has been going in.

Tell me more about the surveying - How far off from the house do you go as it chiefly woods & hills - Conrad continues inquiring about you

Don't forget - Clare's birthday 7th - I hear that G. M.'s went off very well & she was greatly pleased at getting letters from both Cor & B. G. Cor is working hard, but thinks every thing is going well.
Luis had a splendid time at the Virels - went a picnic to the Grandpère hills climbed on & saw the lonely Scotch firs, the purple heather & view - Again went 15 miles along the rugged coast & bathed there & on the morning to Aberdeen 30 miles to see it - & Mrs Scotts house - Aberdeen is called the Granite City - The fine red granite the associate with tomb stones, comes from near there - Lois will be sailing on Sept 1st

coming out with her - & will take some pictures at the Gill with Eva & see the Canadian country which seems to be having a pleasant time down here, but he only has two weeks, so it will soon be over - There are rows of small children about the Baul Rock swarms
say the reward of the slipper giving snacks &

the little victims howling gives testimony that some at least are naughty enough.

Dear Mrs Inaloni had another of those attacks that upset her so - I am sorry about her - for she dreads them so - Don't speak of these for she does not like them talked of

Fancy Elizabeth sending G. W. a lot of beautiful baskets - one for a wedding present for Ruth, one for G. W. birthday one for Clara & one for me

The good loving hearted soul! she is now at the head of a hospital for the Sholems, at Lyttone -

Much love dear
from
Mother
