I wd have written to you before, but have not got your new address, & address to send to no 19 - is a rather round about way. There seems to be quite a number of difficulties, cropping up & no immediate prospect of getting Clare back - & I don't want to have her tired out Edward can't be full of worries - about this anti-union business. I cannot make out what is a stray from the papers - but it seems surely mark out somewhere in the end - Sam Hughes makes very glib remarks - but they do not sound right to me. & Mr Thomas is evidently very glad - I wanted a description from you, of the new library

I am sure you will do your best to bring a cheerful spirit into the house when you go there - I help Clare if you can - I fear neither of you have had justice Saturday & lately, but I hope you have been able the country enough to enjoy the beautiful colders of the trees They have been wonderful here - & at last - we have been to the Trappist-monastery - I have wanted to go there for years - They have chosen the most beautiful site in the country - of course a high valley - sheltered by hills on three sides - the church & monastery substantially built of stone & orchards & great fields & houses of hens - with incubators & everything possible - also fine dogs. They sell the pups, they had a huge ~~same~~ dog, which they said weighed 200 lbs when she was in good condition - The apple trees were all numbered - The monks never eat meat & during the 6 winter months the house built on wood

As you see rather they have but one meal a day. Towards evening. & that consists of bread & butter, fruit - & vegetables, honey etc. no eggs or fish. They work 3-4 hrs a day. have many robes & & prayers - get up at 2. A. M. go to bed at - & in winter & in summer. - and their of it - & this for life = whatever they lack in medicine - they have nothing at no expense, to cure heat & their food. & to separate themselves from each & the love of food - contraindicated us with great force to the ourselves & being sacrifice to do this will = three robes typical, & urgent us as - A regulated life is always a great help. & we do make, seeds for ascending to pray & read regularly - to go temporarily to school - & the combination & of "Think out a regulated life"

I am hardly staying out here as an economy. I hardly to get her money from the stock, which she has done - & I too want to get into as good shape as I can. You I know very broken up last spring - we were all in doing our best to see, Mother's sees - Well I was I think I give money saving up with great pleasure, I really to want a great deal to have a little money lacking. & each week a little added over I meant up. I remember what you did on the Monday holidays. I hope get out to the country sometime.
I gave a ride - being there for the week's lately. I hope you do anything nice to read? I do think you are something - see how dear you are.
