

I grieve for you in having to part even for a while from your dear mother.

Heaven is close, close beside us though, dear Blairie - I have known that ever since my own sweet Marjorie crossed so fearlessly over the dark border - and those loved ones who are there are

My dear Blairie -

We have been thinking and speaking of you ever since we heard the sad, sad news.

There is no one in the whole world like a mother - and I just cannot tell you how loving us just - the same only with - a larger understanding and patience. To them it has been explained why such things have to be. I know too where they are is truly the Place Beautiful - As Dr. Hanson wrote to Mrs. McHenry "The Gateway is the Gate way" - The Gateway to that wonderful "Peace which passeth all our poor understanding"

The radiance upon sweet Maryjane's face as she hovered there was I feel sure the reflection from the glorious Light within the Gate.

To me the verse of Ex. 23 - 20 has been a beautiful thought - Your Mother was dear to very many and will be greatly missed.

With - great sympathy and love from

Louis D. McHenry.
