

ing about. I saw in the paper. Oh! what a loss to so many, I always looked upon
Mrs. Harrington as a Tower of Strength.
I have ~~some~~ beautiful letters, which she was so kind as to write me: for she has even

From a faithful Servant of Lady Dawson.
Litholme
New Gardens
London

14th Dec/17
Dear Miss Harrington
I have been thinking
so much of you these last weeks & hoping that perhaps you would write me a few lines
as I have not anything at all except

"A heart-aching promise
To sooth & sympathy".

Dear Miss Clauplen
Write & let me know how you all are

Hoping the new year will bring you the Best
Gifts

Yours Sincerely.

E. Hancock.

