with the little ones I recant know so little about you Lovingly
 Mother

Tell her I read his letter 5 or 6 times over & was very very glad to get it & hope for another

Some day when you are near shops & busy, I want you to send me a copy of "Morning Bells" for the little girls here to wake up early & it will be nice for them.

I am sure I shall be glad to give you some of it - no matter how small, & then each doing the collection will not bring in the other. I do not wish to come - I was not forgetting about the matter, & shall have that Mrs. Walker should have given you one. Please do as I prefer to compare to avoid speaking of anything somewhat when glad and those for whom been most - brief of us in many ways, & I do greatly dislike to begin to begin in the small for off way, at present, I will not write much on your memory as to this my love

It is also delightful to hear that Miss Knobel is to have a niece & gathered for an evening & read their for about an hour, & brought home some books & papers & they have been necessary, & I have been making paper dolls to keep the children busy, & so you see how things arranged their time - so you see how things it is to know each little doll = two pieces very often & uncomfortable, as this weather is cold to make her, so I must go & make a list to him -

Yell dear little see that I hope the new ones have the 4 years old & I makes general enquiries about it, my heart-ache which she says I give her a secret - kiss, & tell her I love the little girl & keep her little feet warm, & I hope she will be of help in case of the dear little heart mother to hold of night & when she comes back again = do you know that charming memory from a teacher usually has a pretty hard time of it, something like a step-mother I think so many duties, I often so little gratitude so you & Clara must try your best to ease her any little bother you can, I to share that you are grateful for the trouble she takes to improve you - I oh hope you also try to willingly give in to Clara, I share you love her - In this great trouble & my being away, I often have, unshared thoughts about this, do really share that you love one another - sisters may be shared friends, I may miss altogether the blessing & comfort & love they might have in one another - you may be sure God put you with the right sister & the very difference between you will make you love each other better if you have patience to work up the ideas I gave things in each other =

Now you time to read anything to yourself now, I if so what-dre you reading I would like you to tell me - there were several books I got for you this summer that I don't think you read & don't borrow books to read there are plenty nice ones at home -

No one has told me if any one reads to the little ones at night, & if you have any progress you never will help him by scolding, only by loving you do I little thoughtful acts - Oh how you have such a big home mission, this winter time flies by & then it never can be done -

I would like to know if the Carstairs have any better news of Willie - I am so sorry for the two little dear boys being ill again - on Monday we went for quite a long drive with Mrs Marcy - sharing the carriage one of the yellow wild & northern looking than at E town but - in summer pretty much the same very hard I Eric said he preferred the little buggy to the chariot & driver -
