My dear Cousin

I have written your Brother Alexander about a letter which my friend Mrs Preston will forward to you when she visits London I write these few lines to send by Dr. Dawson who with Mrs.
D. leave for England tomorrow I enclose their address in London and will take it a favour if you will call. It will give you great pleasure to meet with Dr. D. who is so highly esteemed not only as a scientific Gentleman but also as a Christian and Philanthropist - Mrs Dawson is a lady likewise beloved and respected by her large circle of Christian friends in Montreal - A visit to her Native Country will I am sure afford her much pleasure

As you will get all the news of our family - from your brother I need not write at any length to you - I do fondly hope the dear girls are well (perhaps tho' I have not heard of) some of them are now are married with kindest love to them and your sister's family of staying with you

Believe me

My dear Cousin

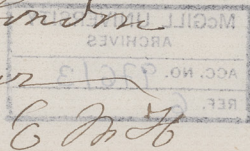

Yours affectionately
Edw. Hornsey

I hope you will write me soon.
