From W. S. Anderson Esq, Secretary of the Putnam Academy,

Putnam, Dec 27, 1854.

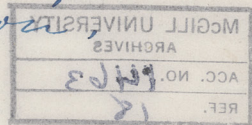

(Copy)

These certify that at the request of the Trustees of Putnam Academy, Mr J. W. Dawson during the Session of 1854-5, delivered a course of thirty two lectures on Natural History in the Academy.

The lectures were attended to their close with increasing interest, by about forty persons inhabitants of the town, as well as by pupils attending other classes in the Academy, who at the termination of the course, testified their high gratification by unanimously proposing a vote of thanks to Mr Dawson.
