as one of the Fellows of the Society, and my kindest wishes
for the progress of American Science in general, and more especially for the many eminent Scientific Men connected with your Society. If I can do anything here

to promote their interests, I need not say that I shall at all times be happy
to put forth any effort in my power.

With sincere regards
I am truly yours
