

Stauts Post

April 11. 1867

My dear Sir,

I had the pleasure of receiving your letter of the 4th inst. and your others containing 2 of our the Readers, came safe. I waited to send you our Report, and should have acknowledged your donation before. I shall be happy to obtain a likeness, and can do so, if the hon fellow lives long enough, as I know of a capital specimen. I am going to St. Louis tomorrow and will enquire of the Photographers.
I think I can give you some accounts of their modes of burial in former days, our words in abundance resemble Greek Latin &c. I can send you. I have not time now, but will at the first opportunity copy for you some collected.

Peanukile ab means from. tan (οταν), when.
to kov, to ce in coke, then Neg, means great. Mal, bad tem sura I cut it reuro. Ples a pigeon.
Milick-ech Milk Donik
Nelle Melek. Ger. Milch.
Latin lact Greek galak. Am pane midgeo to milk out. to draw out. A capital word, for men must have known about milk from the beginning. The Indian word ma sted <sup>n</sup> is bagu near the German as to raise strong suspicion. That they derived the ortho and the name from that country.

der wagon - ~~W~~ W pronounced as v, is German. The Indian calls every vehicle tü bag ün. Were he to attempt to say the German word, he would exactly say his own. For he has no v, and always substitutes for it b. Then he has no r, and either drops it out in foreign words, or calls it l.

Ejigüladoo, <sup>I cast it away</sup> may be compared with the Latin ejecio, taking care to pronounce c as k, k, kakayak, ккакзка, it is all gone. Wokwis Fox.
Nahset ~~to~~ kwöäus.

Peredij, partridge, piłowick.
Sälmo. Pilämoo. Rious.
River. Sebov, change to
v. x S to R. and there is a resemblance. Finally - (on the present, genitus,

Yironai cheenüm, a man
The four stars in ursa major is mooen a bear. The tail (they understood that "bears has no tails") is three hunters pursuing the bear. It omes, Pijem, Röwin, & Chickadee. The belt of Orion are <sup>the</sup> Fisherman.
His sword "The kings". Sjal-küsch the Pleiades, meaning not known.

Neemae fairies Wig-gyl-läddäm. oock kiklittle wigglers compose well with our own. Kookwés yiyao is a well defined giout - a man-eater, just such as "Jack" used to kill.

Chénook are terrible bellows from the North, whose formidable war-whorps, could cut down the poor Micmacs at a great distance - Evidently an onslaught from fine arms. Nigünwewisoo, is a ~~strong~~ sort of demigod of the woods, male and female, wonderful singers and exquisite musicians, but let the wanderer beware, they lure to ruin while they charm. Mermaids they know all about, have seen them many a time.
So they say.

Yours in haste
very truly
J. S. Rowd

J. B. Dawson Esq.

Rand
Memoranda
of 1897