

tyranny and though they too often used against it its own weapons a gutter age will give their fault which were thrust their true, and know their virtues which were of all times
I have been waiting for letters

Ever yours
T. Sterry Hunt

J. P. Lesley Esq

- - T. S. Hunt 131 69

May 29 - 1867 -

My dear Lesley the number of the Geol. Soc. is 39 made Fleurus on the south side. The door is not open, and you ring the bell even on the nights of meeting - I hope to meet you there on Monday Evg -

I have just been musing in the darkness tonight on the Marche 'St. Honore' the scene of the old Jacobins Peace to their shades! a bloody strife they fought against

tyranny, and though they
too often used against it its own weapons. a gentler age will pardon their faults, which were theirs of their time, and honour their virtues which were of all times.

I leave tomorrow morning for London.

Ever Yours

J. Sterry Hunt

J. P. Lesley Esq