J. Dawson
Dear Sir

I feel ashamed to say that I have not been able as yet, to return you your loan of $15⁰⁰, although I fully expected to do so before this, but no letter as yet has arrived, with money.

I intend to go to Sengerfield this summer, to begin practice there as I am going to-morrow.

I thought it best to write you a few lines, explaining the reason that I have not sent the money before this.

Mr Macduff, has very kindly advanced me

money sufficient to buy a small stock of medicines & other things necessary for me, so that I think I shall get on very well I expect to receive some money by next mail, so that I will be able to send it to you in a week or so by mail.

With many thanks for the great improved kindness, which I have always received at your hands

I remain

Yours sincerely
J. M. Fordney
