

Saturday Evg

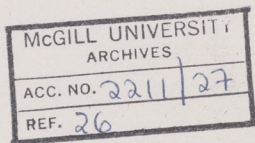

Dear Sir,

I sent the boy up with a note <sup>at 10 o'clock</sup>. He must have neglected to deliver it. Henderson came up. His mother, Mr Matheson & Mr Raper were there. He brought no bail. I was much surprised. I tried to escape so he had to be put to jail and his mother seemed to think it best he should be temporarily there.

He is evidently out of his head, & ought to be taken care of. I mentioned to his mother what you meant? About

hoping to get her
put into some proper Asylum. Poor woman
she seemed to much distress. We must now see how our next step will be. I fear it will only exasperate
her, but she must
in some way be kept
from doing mischief
Very truly yrs
A. Robertson

J. Dawson
Esq.

Andrew Roberts
April 7th

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

[Faint handwriting]
[Faint handwriting]

Roberts

Chapman

Deans

Fols

Faculty

