

Carpenter May 170

clined. Or, if you would prefer coming later, we should be glad to see you at our 6 o'clock tea, or our Presbyterian supper at 9 — I have much to show you which will interest you, inter alia one of the specimens which King & Rowney rely on as a demolition of Bozoon

Mrs Carpenter, being much engaged at present, hopes that Mrs Dawson will excuse the formality

you can do so
next Sunday. For I am fully occupied just now in superintending our removal into our new building; and
as soon as this is over,
I am going down to Cambridge for a few days' holiday, which I greatly need.

I very much hope,

therefore, that you may feel able to come to me either for the afternoon or the evening of Sunday, as you may feel inclined.
We always dine at two o'clock on that day;
and should be glad if you and Mrs Dawson
and your son would
either dine or lunch
with us at that time,
as you may feel inclined.

of a previous call
If you cannot come

You Sunday, will you all dine with us in family
on Monday at 5 o'clock
I have had a great trouble to me that I have not been able to ask you to come and see me during the time
that you have been in London; and I much fear that you may leave without paying me a visit, unless

University of London,
Burlington House, W.
Results of Examinations of the University of London 1859
W. B. Carpenter
Can you tell me anything of him M. B. Logan?

McGILL UNIVERSITY
ARCHIVES
ACC. NO. 2211/27
REF. 82